Heroines of Vichy France Paul R. Bartrop, Samantha J. Lakin, 2019-05-10 This book tells the largely unknown story behind the rescue activities of several remarkable young Jewish women in Vichy France during World War II and their role in the resistance against Nazi and Vichy France deportation policies Few studies of Vichy France and the Holocaust have looked at the rescue of Jews by those prepared to risk everything to escort them to safety in the border regions and even fewer have considered Jewish rescue of Jews specifically of Jewish children by women This work will be arguably the first book in which the experiences and efforts of a number of female rescuers all of whom knew or knew of each other have been brought together in a single volume with the object of honoring their memory and showing how the value of human life was sustained through the Holocaust Focusing on a number of young Jewish women who defied the Nazis this narrative highlights their courage and sacrifice in their efforts to rescue Jews in France during World War II Additionally it shows how these French women responded to Nazi and Vichy France policies of deportation through resistance activities This is a story that will captivate anyone with an interest in the innate goodness of human beings that can shine even when confronted with the darkest expressions of depravity that occurred during the Holocaust

A "Jewish Marshall Plan" Laura Hobson Faure, 2022-02-01 While the role the United States played in France s liberation from Nazi Germany is widely celebrated it is less well known that American Jewish individuals and organizations mobilized to reconstruct Jewish life in France after the Holocaust In A Jewish Marshall Plan Laura Hobson Faure explores how American Jews committed themselves and hundreds of millions of dollars to bring much needed aid to their French coreligionists Hobson Faure sheds light on American Jewish chaplains members of the Armed Forces and those involved with Jewish philanthropic organizations who sought out Jewish survivors and became deeply entangled with the communities they helped to rebuild While well intentioned their actions did not always meet the needs and desires of the French Jews A Jewish Marshall Plan examines the complex interactions exchanges and solidarities created between American and French Jews following the Holocaust Challenging the assumption that French Jews were passive recipients of aid this work reveals their work as active partners who negotiated their own role in the reconstruction process Research Handbook on Child Migration Jacqueline Bhabha, Jyothi Kanics, Daniel Senovilla Hernández, 2018-08-31 The scope and complexity of child migration have only recently emerged as a critical factors in global migration This volume assembles for the first time a richly interdisciplinary body of work drawing on contributions from renowned scholars eminent practitioners and prominent civil society advocates from across the globe and from a wide range of different mobility contexts Their invaluable pedagogical tools and research documents demonstrate the urgency and breadth of this important new aspect of international human mobility in our global age Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger, 2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public The Survival of the Jews in France, 1940-44 Jacques Semelin, 2018-12-01 Between the French defeat in 1940 and liberation in 1944 the Nazis killed almost 80 000 of France s Jews both French and foreign Since that time this tragedy has been well documented But there are other stories hidden within it ones neglected by historians In fact 75% of France s Jews escaped the extermination while 45% of the Jews of Belgium perished and in the Netherlands only 20% survived The Nazis were determined to destroy the Jews across Europe and the Vichy regime collaborated in their deportation from France So what is the meaning of this French exception Jacques Semelin sheds light on this French enigma painting a radically unfamiliar view of occupied France His is a rich even handed portrait of a complex and changing society one where helping and informing on one s neighbours went hand in hand and where small gestures of solidarity sat comfortably with anti Semitism Without shying away from the horror of the Holocaust s crimes this seminal work adds a fresh perspective to our history of the Second World War
