Doing the Work of Comparative Theology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti Kärkkäinen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of Kärkkäinen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology

Does God Believe in Human Rights? Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, Alan Andrew Stephens, Raphael Walden, 2007 Where can religions find sources of legitimacy for human rights How do and how should religious leaders and communities respond to human rights as defined in modern International Law When religious precepts contradict human rights standards for example in relation to freedom of expression or in relation to punishments which should trump the other and why Can human rights and religious teachings be interpreted in a manner which brings reconciliation closer Do the modern concept and system of human rights undermine the very vision of society that religions aim to impart Is a reference to God in the discussion of human rights misplaced Do human fallibilities with respect to interpretation judicial reasoning and the understanding of human oneness and dignity provide the key to the undeniable and sometimes devastating conflicts that have arisen between and within religions and the human rights movement In this volume academics and lawyers tackle these most difficult questions head on with candour and creativity and the collection is rendered unique by the further contributions of a remarkable range of other professionals including senior religious leaders and representatives journalists diplomats and civil servants both national and international

Most notably the contributors do not shy away from the boldest question of all summed up in the book's title The thoroughly edited and revised papers which make up this collection were originally prepared for a ground breaking conference organised by the Clemens Nathan Research Centre the University of London Institute of Commonwealth Studies and Martinus Nijhoff Brill

The Qur'an in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Corrie Block, 2013-10-08 Offering an analysis of Christian Muslim dialogue across four centuries this book highlights those voices of ecumenical tone which have more often used the Qur'an for drawing the two faiths together rather than pushing them apart and amplifies the voice of the Qur'an itself Finding that there is tremendous ecumenical ground between Christianity and Islam in the voices of their own scholars this book ranges from a period of declining ecumenism during the first three centuries of Islam to a period of resurging ecumenism during the most recent century until now Among the ecumenical voices in the Christian Muslim dialogue this book points out that the Qur'an itself is possibly the strongest of those voices These findings are cause for and evidence of hope for the Christian Muslim relationship that although agreement may never be reached dialogue has led at times to very real mutual understanding and appreciation of the religious other Providing a tool for those pursuing understanding and mutual appreciation between the Islamic and Christian faiths this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Islam the Qur'an and the history of Christian Muslim relations

Jona als Schlüssel zu Bibel und Koran Julia

Bubenheim, 2021-10-20 Inwiefern ist Teilhabe christlicher SchülerInnen an Bibel und Koran im katholischen Religionsunterricht möglich? Diese Frage geht Julia Bubenheim auf der Grundlage einer synchronen intertextuellen Exegese der Jona Erzählung in Bibel und Koran nach. Dabei entwickelt sie überzeugend hermeneutisch-exegetische Leitlinien für den Religionsunterricht. Die Einbung und Reflexion einer christlichen Lektörperspektive stellen Lernerträge für die Beschäftigung mit der alttestamentlichen Jona Erzählung und ihren neutestamentlichen Rezeptionen dar. Sie bilden den Grundbaustein für eine biblisch fundierte Koran-Lektüre aus christlicher Sicht. Die intertextuelle Lektüre von Bibel und Koran leistet durch die kritische Reflexion eindimensionaler Konstruktionen von eigen und fremd einen wertvollen Beitrag im Umgang mit dem eigenen Anderssein und der Begegnung mit Gott als dem ganz Anderen. The Muslim World Book Review, 2003

Theological Issues in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Charles Tieszen, 2018-06-08 Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue addresses the main theological topics of discussion that appear in Christian Muslim engagement. Many of these topics originate in the medieval period and the earliest encounters between Christians and Muslims. Even so, the topics persist in contemporary contexts of dialogue and engagement. Christians and Muslims still discuss whether or not God should be understood as strictly one or as a Trinity in Unity and debates over the nature of revelation or prophethood remain. Theological reflection therefore must continue to be brought to bear on these topics in light of their history and in view of their applicability to growing contexts of interreligious engagement. Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue is a comprehensive theological sourcebook for students learning about Christian Muslim relations and practitioners engaged in Christian Muslim dialogue.
