Sculpted Forest Forest Of Dean:

The Sculpted Forest Rupert Martin, Martin Orrom, Bruce Allan, 1990 Sculpture Parks and Trails of Britain & Ireland Alison Stace, 2022-03-03 The ultimate illustrated guide to the sculpture parks and trails of England Scotland Ireland and Wales This exciting guide to the sculpture parks trails and gardens of England Ireland Scotland and Wales is the perfect book if you like art and the outdoors Divided up into countries and regions the book is informative as well as beautifully illustrated with fabulous images of sculptures by a broad array of international artists The book gives you information on all the major sculpture venues of interest featuring the best and most established while also providing a wide range of other interesting places to visit and explore Each feature provides directions of how to get there along with an overview of the park or trail and lists sculptures of particular interest and quality while maps of each area will help you find places close by to visit This makes it easy to see which places are suited to you depending on your preferences level of interest and time available This fully revised 2nd edition provides updated information and new entries for England as well as brand new sections providing thorough coverage of Scotland Ireland and Wales It is an ideal guide if you have a passion for both nature and sculptures or if you are looking for ideas for a fun family day out Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture s placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape The Sculpture of David Nash Julian Andrews, David Nash, 1999-01-01 A fully illustrated overview of the work of David Nash a contemporary British sculptor famous for his work with natural materials The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt, 2015-11-15 Gardening is rich in tradition and many gardens are explicitly designed to refer to or honor the past But garden design is also rich in innovation and in The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt explores the wide varieties of approaches aesthetics and achievements in garden design throughout the world today The gardens Hunt explores offer surprising new ideas about how we can carve out a space for respite in nature Taking readers to gardens public and private busy and hidden away to botanical gardens small parks university campuses and vernacular gardens Hunt showcases the differences between cultures and countries around the globe including the United States United Kingdom France Germany China and Australia Richly illustrated The Making of Place is sure to enchant and inspire even the most modest of home gardeners 15 Short Walks in the Forest of Dean Mike Dunn, 2025-08-20 Would you like to explore the best of the Forest of Dean This guidebook covers 15 of the best short walks in the area between 4 and 9km all under three hours including the Dean Sculpture Trail Tidenham Chase and the Devil's Pulpit Nagshead Nature Reserve and May Hill Why choose this guidebook Easy to moderate walks suitable for almost everyone Short climbs but no challenging terrain Numbered points which tie OS maps to clear route description Facilities parking and highlights for every route Route Summary Table to help you choose your walk Cicerone's Short Walks guidebooks contain everything you need to get outdoors and discover the best of an area The routes are perfect if you're new to walking or looking for something you can enjoy with the whole family Let the adventures begin

Railway George Revill, 2013-06-01 In the nineteenth century railways were viewed as a symbol of progress and confidence in technological modernity In the twenty first century the frustrations of gridlocked traffic record high gas prices and the looming fears of climate change have transformed the railway system once again into a symbol of hope that provides the possibility of an environmentally sustainable future In Railway George Revill examines the technology and politics of railway history as well as related themes such as mobility identity design marketing and sustainability In both practical and symbolic senses the cultural meanings of railways continue to play a role in how people organize and respond to modern environments social problems and technologies Revill draws from art literature music and film to illustrate how the railway carries meaning for all of us creating connections and separations detachment and involvement from the routine commuter to the enthusiast As Revill shows railways inform our everyday language from fast track to side track to going off the rails and continue to fascinate us today In this wide ranging and well illustrated look at railways across the globe Revill ultimately reveals how central they are to our understanding of modern everyday life

Free to Do Travel Guide UK and Ireland, 2007-07

Thinking the Sculpture Garden Penny Florence, 2020-02-20 This innovative book poses two deceptively simple questions what is a sculpture garden and what happens when you give equal weight to the main elements of landscape planting and artwork Its wide ranging frame of reference including the USA Europe and Japan is brought into focus through Tremenhoe Sculpture Garden Cornwall with which the book begins and ends Effectively less than 15 years old and largely the work of one man Tremenhoe affords an opportunity to examine as work in progress the creation of a new kind of sculpture garden Including a historical overview the book traverses multiple ways of seeing and experiencing sculpture gardens culminating in an exploration of their relevance as cultural ecology in the context of globalisation urbanisation and climate change The thinking here is non dualist and broadly aligned with New Materialisms and Material Feminisms to explore our place as humans in the non human world on which we depend Eminent contributors including John Dixon Hunt George Descombes Bernard Lassus and David Leatherbarrow approach these issues through practices and theories of landscape architecture garden and art making history and writing and philosophy Richly illustrated with over 100 images including a colour plate section the book will primarily appeal to those engaged in professional or academic research along with sculpture garden visitors who will find new and surprising ways of experiencing plants and art in natural and urban settings

Heritage Interpretation Alison

Hems, Marion R. Blockley, 2006 Heritage Interpretation is an essential guide to present practice and policy concerning issues in heritage management The UK has an international reputation for the excellence of its heritage interpretation During the 1980s and 1990s the UK developed innovative public presentation of heritage sites in the increasingly competitive cultural tourism market UK heritage organisations developed ideas pioneered by the US National Park Service in the 1960s and applied these to cultural heritage sites From the bookjacket
