Nayar, 2012-03-29 For more than half a century now scholars have debated over what comprises a genuinely religious film one that evinces an authentic manifestation of the sacred Often these scholars do so by pitting the successful films against those which propagate an inauthentic spiritual experience with the biblical spectacular serving as their most notorious candidate This book argues that what makes a filmic manifestation of the sacred true or authentic may say more about a spectator or critic's particular way of knowing as influenced by alphabetic literacy than it does about the aesthetic or philosophical and sometimes even faith based dimensions of the sacred onscreen Engaging with everything from Hollywood religious spectacles Hindu mythologicals and an international array of films revered for their transcendental style The Sacred and the Cinema unveils the epistemic pressures at the heart of engaging with the sacred onscreen The book also provides a valuable summation of the history of the sacred as a field of study particularly as that field intersects with film Romanian New Wave Cinema Doru Pop, 2014-03-17 Modern Romanian filmmaking has received wide international recognition From 2001 to 2011 promising young filmmakers have been embraced as important members of European cinema The country developed a new fervor for filmmaking and a dozen new movies have received international awards and recognition from some of the most important critics worldwide This development sometimes called New Wave cinema is fully explored in this book By using a comparative approach and searching for similarities among cinematic styles and trends the study reveals that the young Romanian directors are part of a larger European way of filmmaking The discussion moves from specific themes motifs and narratives to the philosophy of a whole generation such as Cristi Puiu Cristian Mungiu Radu Muntean Corneliu Porumboiu Tudor Giurgiu and others Russian Cinema David C. Gillespie, 2014-09-25 Russian Cinema provides a lively and informative exploration of the film genres that developed during Russia's tumultuous history with discussion of the work of Eisenstein Pudovkin Mikhalkov Paradzhanov Sokurov and others The background section assesses the contribution of visual art and music especially the work of the composers Shostakovich and Prokofev to Russian cinema Subsequent chapters explore a variety of topics The literary space the cinematic rendering of the literary text from Sovietized versions to bolder and more innovative interpretations as well as adaptations of foreign classics The Russian film comedy looks at this perennially popular genre over the decades from the domestication of laughter under Stalin to the emergence of satire The historical film how history has been used in film to affirm prevailing ideological norms from October to Taurus Women and Russian film discusses some of the female stars of the Soviet screen Liubov Orlova Vera Alentova Liudmila Gurchenko as well as films made by male and female directors such as Askoldov and Kira Muratova Film and ideology shows why ideology was an essential component of Soviet films such as The Maxim Trilogy and how it was later definitively rejected The Russian war film looks at Civil War and Second World War films and the post Soviet treatment of recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya Private life and public morality explores the evolution of melodramas about youth angst town and village life personal relationships and the emergence of the dominant sub genre of the 1990s the gangster thriller Autobiography memory and identity offers a close reading of the work of Andrei Tarkovskii Russia s greatest post war director whose films including Andrei Rublev and Mirror place him among the foremost European auteur film makers Russian Cinema offers a close analysis of over 300 films illustrated with representative stills throughout As with other titles in the Inside Film series it includes comprehensive filmographies a thorough bibliography and an annotated further reading list The book is a jargon free accessible study that will be of interest to undergraduates of film studies modern languages Russian language and literature as well as cineastes film teachers and researchers The Routledge Companion to Film History William Guynn,2010-09-13 The Routledge Companion to Film History is an indispensable guide for anyone studying film history for the first time Incorporating a series of 11 introductory critical essays on key subject areas with a dictionary of key names and terms it serves to introduce the reader to the field of film history in a comprehensive and well rounded manner A Critical Companion to Terrence Malick Joshua Sikora,2020-10-07 From the dust of the Montana plains to the farthest reaches of the cosmos Terrence Malick s films have enchanted audiences with transcendent images of nature humanity and grace for nearly fifty years The contributors in this volume explore the profound implications of Malick s stories images processes and convictions as they offer comprehensive studies of the ten completed films of Terrence Malick Each chapter takes a reflective and retrospective approach considering new interpretations and frameworks for understanding Malick s unique creative choices Drawing from a range of diverse academic disciplines the collection analyzes the groundbreaking qualities of his cinematic style and the philosophical underpinnings that permeate his work Rigorously researched and unique the arguments presented within this volume shed new light on Malick and the cinematic medium A Companion to Latin American Cinema Maria M.
