Sculpture Arts Crafts:

Soft Sculpture and Other Soft Art Forms Dona Z. Meilach,1974 The Craftsperson Speaks Joan Jeffri,1992-05-12

Although contemporary American crafts are widely exhibited and appreciated very little information is available about the artists themselves their training careers inspirations and feelings about their work and place in society As part of a large oral history and survey project of the Research Center for Arts and Culture of Columbia University ten personal narrative interviews with craftspeople were edited and collected for The Craftsperson Speaks The selected artists represent a variety of disciplines and media including ceramics glass jewelry metalwork and fiber and also exhibit a balance of age ethnicity regionalism and stage of career development Each interview is prefaced by brief life and career data and followed by information on exhibit sources and professional affiliations and honors and a photographic illustration of a representative piece of work The volume s introduction written by the project coordinator Mary Greeley offers an overview of the history of the craftsperson in the United States and a final bibliography provides sources for further reference This combination of information and insights will be of interest and value to artists teachers students art professionals and the general public Greenwood Press is pleased to publish it in time to help inaugurate 1993 and the Year of the American Craft Sculpture and Art Crafts

Bunka Koryu Kurabu,1948* Craft Shaping Society Lindy Joubert,2022-05-31 This book focusses on the role of craft as a continuing cultural practice and the revival of disappearing skills in contemporary society It includes twenty five essays by highly regarded artisans academics technologists entrepreneurs businesspeople curators and researchers from many countries representing a wide range of global craft traditions and innovations The authors explain their professional practices and creative pathways with knowledge experience and passion They offer insightful analyses of their traditions within their culture and in the marketplace alongside the evolution of technology as it adapts to support experimentation and business strategies They write about teaching and research informing their practice and they explain the importance of their tools and materials in function and form of the objects they make The essays reveal a poignant expression of their successes disappointments and opportunities This book offers case studies of how artisans have harnessed the traditions of the past alongside the latest design technologies The authors reveal how global craft is not only a vehicle for self expression and creativity but also for being deeply relevant to the world of work community and environmental sustainability The book makes the vital link between skills knowledge education and employment and fills a much needed niche in Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET The International Studio ,1919 Arts Digest ,1937 Directory of
