Se Non Ora Quando:

If Not Now, When? Primo Levi, 1995-07-01 In Levi's writing nothing is superfluous and everything is essential Saul Bellow A Penguin Classic In the final days of World War II a courageous band of Jewish partisans makes its way from Russia to Italy moving toward the ultimate goal of Palestine Based on a true story If Not Now When chronicles their adventures as they wage a personal war of revenge against the Nazis blowing up trains rescuing the last victims of concentration camps scoring victories in the face of unspeakable devastation Primo Levi captures the landscape and the people of Eastern Europe in vivid detail depicting as well the terrible bleakness of war ridden Europe But finally what he gives us is a tribute to the strength and ingenuity of the human spirit For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Primo Levi Lucie Benchouha, 2006 As one of the best known survivors of the concentration camps Primo Levi's testimony to his experiences in Auschwitz is internationally recognised as one of the most significant works of the last century This volume examines each of Levi's works in detail assessing and analysing the influence of Levi's time in Auschwitz on his writing It identifies a variety of thematic temporal stylistic and linguistic echoes of Levi's concentration camp testimony and traces these echoes throughout his subsequent apparently unrelated work The book provides original and fascinating insights into the works of this remarkable writer giving readers a new understanding and perspective on the immense significance and the pervasive influence of the holocaust on Levi's creative output

Women's Emancipation and Civil Society Organisations Christina Schwabenland, Chris Lange, Jenny Onyx, Sachiko Nakagawa, 2016-10-05 Women are at the heart of civil society organizations CSOs that challenge oppressive practices at a local and global level and develop outstanding entrepreneurial activities Yet CSO research tends to ignore considerations of gender and the rich history of activist feminist organizations is rarely examined This collection corrects that oversight exploring the nexus between the emancipation of women and their roles in CSOs Featuring contrasting international studies from a wide range of contributors it covers emerging issues such as the role of social media in organizing the significance of religion in many cultural contexts activism in Eastern Europe and the impact of environmental degradation on women's lives Asking whether involvement in CSOs offers a potential source of emancipation for women or maintains the status quo this book will have an impact on both equal opportunity policy and practice

Deconstructing the Role of Generations in Social Movements Mark Turner, Jan Andre Lee Ludvigsen, Maria Grasso, 2025-08-18 Although questions of how a social group's shared experiences growing up in particular historical and social contexts shapes their identities including their political identities have engaged sociologists of family youth citizenship culture and political change few books have so far examined the specific role of generations and generational consciousness in social movement activism As such this is the first book to focus exclusively on issues of temporality events and generational legacies in social movements In demonstrating how generational consciousness and specific frames narratives and repertoires of contention are shaped by and respond to historical and contemporary meanings of major events and social transformations in different locations new important questions on race class ethnicity gender sexuality and citizenship are revealed at new emerging critical junctures in the twenty first century With its high quality chapters and transnational scope this book will capture several key trends in the role of generations in social movements and explores topics including contemporary feminism family and intergenerational transmission generationality and political change rituals and social change and Black politics and US democracy This is an invaluable resource for students and academics with an interest in sociology political science and the study of social movements and social change and for policymakers and readers with a general interest in intergenerational conflict and the challenges of engaging new youth generations in political and democratic structures and processes

Feminist Movements in Time and Space Giada Bonu Rosenkranz, Donatella della Porta, 2025-02-14 This volume provides a broad analysis of feminist movements both historical and present day in Europe It will fill the gap in the literature on feminist mobilizations through a systematic analysis of European third wave feminism from a cross national perspective covering Denmark France Greece Italy Poland Slovenia Spain and Turkey and a cross time perspective covering the time frame 2010 2021 In doing this the authors also single out the different constellations of feminist movements as related to specific national political opportunities and networks of alliance and opposition This book will be of interest to students and scholars in gender studies feminist theory and social movement studies

International Cinema and the Girl Fiona Handyside, 2016-04-29 From the precocious charms of Shirley Temple to the box office behemoth Frozen and its two young female leads Anna and Elsa the girl has long been a figure of fascination for cinema The symbol of imagined childhood innocence the site of intrigue and nostalgia for adults a metaphor for the precarious nature of subjectivity itself the girl is caught between infancy and adulthood between objectification and power She speaks to many strands of interest for film studies feminist questions of cinematic representation of female subjects historical accounts of shifting images of girls and childhood in the cinema and philosophical engagements with the possibilities for the subject in film This collection considers the specificity of girls experiences and their cinematic articulation through a multicultural feminist lens which cuts across the divides of popular art house Western non Western and north south Drawing on examples from North and South America Asia Africa and Europe the contributors bring a new understanding of the global local nature of girlhood and its relation to contemporary phenomena such as post feminism neoliberalism and queer subcultures Containing work by established and emerging scholars this volume explodes the narrow post feminist canon and expands existing geographical ethnic and historical accounts of cinematic cultures and girlhood
