Sea Excerpts From Herman Melville:

The Sea. Excerpts from Herman Melville Herman Melville, 1978 The Sea Herman Melville, 1970 Critical Companion to Herman Melville Carl Edmund Rollyson, Lisa Olson Paddock, April Gentry, 2007 Critical Companion to Herman Melville examines the life and work of a writer who spent much of his career in obscurity Sea Stories, 2007-04-26 A collection of poems stories historical essays fairy tales and myths related to the sea including tales of pirates mermaids Vikings and sea monsters illustrated by well known artists The Sea in World History Stephen K. Stein, 2017-04-24 This two volume set documents the essential role of the sea and maritime activity across history from travel and food production to commerce and conquest In all eras water transport has served as the cheapest and most efficient means of moving cargo and people over any significant distance Only relatively recently have railroads and aircraft provided an alternative Most of the world's bulk goods continue to travel primarily by ship over water Even today 95 percent of the cargo that enters and leaves the United States does so by ship Similarly people around the world rely on the sea for food and in recent years the sea has become an important source of oil and other resources with the longterm effects of our continuing efforts to extract resources from the sea further highlighting environmental concerns that range from pollution to the exhaustion of fish stocks This chronologically organized two volume reference addresses the history of the sea beginning with ancient civilizations 4000 to 1000 BCE and ending with the modern era 1945 to the present day Each of the eight chapters is further broken down into sections that focus on specific nations or regions offering detailed descriptions of that area of the world and shorter entries on specific topics individuals and events The book spans maritime history covering major seafaring peoples and nations famous explorers travelers and commanders events battles and wars key technologies including famous ships important processes and ongoing events such as piracy and the slave trade and more Readers will benefit from dozens of primary source documents ranging from ancient Egyptian tales of seafaring to texts by renowned travelers like Marco Polo Zheng He and Ibn Battuta that provide firsthand accounts from the age of discovery as well as accounts of battle from World War I and II and more modern accounts of the sea Unpainted to the Last Elizabeth A. Schultz, 1995 The most continuously frequently and diversely illustrated of all American novels Moby Dick has attracted some remarkable book illustrators in Rockwell Kent Boardman Robinson Garrick Palmer Barry Moser and Bill Sienkiewicz among others represented here Rites and Passages Margaret S. Creighton, 1995-08-25 This book contributes to what has recently been called a new social history of seafaring This new maritime history places sailors themselves at the center not the periphery of the maritime past and explores ways that the history of the sea and the history of the shore have intersected It differs from traditional accounts which celebrate exotic trades powerful merchants maritime technologies and military exploits Drawn on the evidence of nearly two hundred ship logs and sailors diaries Rites and Passages examines American whalers at the height of the whaling industry in the 1800s and argues that whaling life and culture was shaped by both the American mainland and by the exigencies of ocean life Unlike other published accounts of seafaring this work brings gender into the maritime equation not only with a discussion of the ways that women figured in this male world but also with an examination of the ways that seafaring served as a rite of passage into manhood Sea Poems Bob Crew,2005 Editor Bob Crew is a writer and sailing enthusiast The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva,Ben P. Robertson,Shannon W. Thompson,2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea Half Hours with Representative Novelists of the Nineteenth Century, Being Passages from Their Works with Brief Biographies and Introductions and a Critical Essay Mackenzie Bell,1927
