Sea of Dreams Cheng Gu, 2005 A comprehensive selection of poems and essays spanning the career of one of China's most celebrated 20th century poets You can write poetry and then again you can't It comes into this world of its own accord not by the will of the poet Gu Cheng Gu Cheng 1956-1993 is one of China's most celebrated contemporary poets His early death ended a literary career that was influenced by the Cultural Revolution and that reawakened the lyricism of Chinese poets during the 1980s Offering a unique blend of brooding imagism and political innuendo Gu Cheng's poetry traces complex changes in the poet's life/familial psychological/cultural and also radiates an innocence and a touching melancholy His poetry began on the farms in Shandong province where his parents were exiled during the Cultural Revolution and ended on a small island in New Zealand where he took up a Thoreau-like existence before his tragic suicide His poem One Generation became emblematic for the generation coming of age in China in the 60s and 70s Here for the first time is poetry based on the poet's own personal selections from his work Sea Basket Blue There are also prose works including excerpts of Gu Cheng's novel Ying'er plus a selection of his essays

Recite and Refuse Nick Admussen, 2016-10-31 Chinese prose poetry today is engaged with a series of questions that are fundamental to the modern Chinese language What is prose What is it good for How should it look and sound Millions of Chinese readers encounter prose poetry every year both in the most official of state sponsored magazines and in the unorthodox experimental work of the avant garde Recite and Refuse makes the answers to our questions about prose legible by translating surveying and interpreting prose poems and by studying the people politics and contexts that surround the writing of prose poetry Author Nick Admussen argues that unlike most genres Chinese prose poems lack a distinct size or shape Their similarity to other prose is the result of a distinct process in which a prose form is recited with some kind of meaningful difference an imitation that refuses to fully resemble its source This makes prose poetry a protean ever changing group of works channeling the language of science journalism Communist Party politics advertisements and much more The poems look vastly different as products but are made with a similar process Focusing on the composition process allows Admussen to rewrite the standard history of prose poetry finding its origins not in 1918 but in the obedient socialist prose poetry of the 1950s Recite and Refuse places the work of state sponsored writers in mutual relationship to prose poems by unorthodox and avant garde poets from cadre writers like Ke Lan and Guo Feng to the border crossing intellectual and poet Liu Zaifu to experimental artists such as Ouyang Jianghe and Xi Chuan The volume features never before seen English translations that range from the representative to the exceptional culminating with Ouyang Jianghe's masterpiece Hanging Coffin Reading across the spectrum enables us to see the way that artists interact with each other how they compete and cooperate and how their interactions as well as their creations continuously reinvent both poetry and prose

collection from a poet whose previous book was a finalist for the Los Angeles Times Book Prize Rain in Plural is the much anticipated fourth collection of poetry by Fiona Sze Lorrain who has been praised by The Rumpus as a master of musicality and enlightening allusions In the wholly original world of these new poems Sze Lorrain addresses both private narratives and the overexposed discourse of the polis using silence and montage lyric and antilyric to envision what she calls creating between liberties With a moral precision embracing us without eschewing I she rethinks questions of citizenship the selections of sensory memory and by extension the tether of word and image to the actual She writes I accept the truth in newspapers by holding the murder of my friends against my chest To each weather forecast I give thanks merci for every outdated dusk dawn Agrippina the Younger Franz Kafka Bob Dylan a butoh performance an unnamed Raku tea bowl each has a place here Made whole by time and its alteration in timelessness synchrony coincidences and accidents Rain in Plural beautifully reveals an elegiac yet ever evolving inner life
