The New Internationalists Sue Clayton, 2020-12-29 An account of the mobilization of thousands of volunteers who rescued supported and welcomed refugees during the recent European refugee crisis In The New Internationalists Sue Clayton tells the story of the largest civic mobilization since the Second World War when volunteers many young and untrained took on unimaginable responsibilities and saved thousands of lives During the European refugee crisis of 2015 2020 they witnessed first hand the catastrophic failure of established NGOs and the indifference and frequently the open hostility of the EU and national governments Many faced state hostility themselves Their accounts show how activist volunteers have shaped today s European humanitarian agenda and provide a powerful critique of failures of current policy Merchant Seamen United States.  Joint Committee ...,1948 Transnational Mobility and Externalization of EU Borders Robel Afeworki Abay,Petra Danková,Tanja Kleibl,Nikos Xypolytas,2024-01-22 Transnational Mobility and Externalization of EU Borders Social Work Migration Management and Resistance addresses the topics of social work and international migration with specific focus on the consequences of EU border externalization policies The increasingly authoritarian character of EU border management raises a number of issues related to the role of social work within a context that is heavily charged both ideologically and politically After theoretically and historically contextualizing externalization with explicit attention to neo colonial genealogies of the current migration regimes this book examines the complex inter relations of social workers with key actors namely mobile people policy makers or funders Particular attention is paid to the socio economic and political impacts of the global Covid 19 pandemic on social work with variously categorized people moving across borders or immobilized incamps Finally the book explores how social workers and refugees resist violent migration controls and increasing criminalization of cross border movements This volume brings together contributions located in the so called countries of origin and transit targeted by EU externalization interventions as well as EU countries in which social workers deal with the effects of border externalization and internalization Europe's Migration Crisis Vicki Squire,2020-09-17 Rejecting the assumption that migration is a crisis for Europe Squire explores alternative responses which provide openings for a renewed humanism Citizen Humanitarianism at European Borders Maria Gabrielsen Jumbert,Elisa Pascucci,2021-06-16 At a time of escalating conflict between states and NGOs engaged in migrant search and rescue operations across the Mediterranean this book explores the emerging trend of citizen led forms of helping others at the borders of Europe In recent years Europe s borders have become new sites of intervention for traditional humanitarian actors and governmental agencies but also increasingly for volunteer and activist initiatives led by ordinary citizens This book sets out to interrogate the shifting relationship between humanitarianism the securitization of border and migration regimes and citizenship Critically examining the do it yourself character of refugee aid practices performed by non professionals coming together to help in informal and spontaneous manners the volume considers the extent to which these new humanitarian practices challenge established conceptualisations of membership belonging and active citizenship Drawing on case studies from countries around Europe including Greece Turkey Italy France and Russia this collection constitutes an innovative and theoretically engaged attempt to bring the field of humanitarian studies into dialogue with studies of grassroots refugee aid and more explicitly with political forms of solidarity with migrants and refugees which fall between aid and activism This book is key reading for advanced students and researchers of humanitarian aid European migration and refugees and citizen led activism
