buildings single and multi family housing and theaters reinforce Myers's commitment to urbanism and reveal his flexibility with modes of modernism Natalie Shivers introduces the early planning work in Toronto and traces the vacant lot/idea of neighborhood infill to the influential Grand Avenue project in Los Angeles Howard Shubert examines the architectural and planning strategies and political complexities of several civic structures in Canada and the United States Luis Hoyos explores Myers's additions and adaptations to historic buildings in diverse urban contexts Lauren Bricker focuses on the use of steel and other industrial materials in Myers's houses and analyses the neighborhood based designs of his multi family housing Charles Oakley describes the technical innovations site planning and historical underpinnings of Myers's theaters and performance complexes
