Diamond,1975 Abstract A practical guide to instructional development for individual learning for university administrators faculty members and students involved in academic innovation emphasizes specific procedures and actual experiences rather than theories and hypothetical examples The 7 text chapter present information and guidelines concerning the basic elements of a sucessful individualized instruction program requirements for organizational changes in academic philosophy basic design inputs project development and the establishment of the instructional operational sequence design and implementation of evaluation instruments and procedures the instructional evaluation component and the intrepretation of evaluation data cost effectiveness and accountability exemplified by a case study and the current status of and prospects for individualized higher education Information on institutional policies with respect to the use of copyrightable materials royalties and on the logistics hardware and budgeting in independent learning facilities are appended wz In Defense of American Higher Education Philip G. Altbach,Patricia J. Gumport,D. Bruce Johnstone,2003-04-30 The current era in higher education is characterized by increased need for accountability and fiscal constraint coupled with demands for increased productivity Higher education is expected to meet the demand of changing student demographics as well as requests for research and service from government and industry To preserve the academy s ability to meet these demands the editors and contributors to this volume argue that while change is inevitable and desirable any radical alterations to the practices that have established and upheld the excellence of higher education in the United States must be carefully considered The editors and contributors cherish the best ideals of higher education academic freedom commitment to both inquiry and teaching and preservation of an independence of mind and spirit in the face of external pressures At the same time the authors of these essays also reflect upon the failings of higher education including problematic historical legacies such as racism sexism and anti semitism In Defense of American Higher Education is a careful analysis of what we have inherited undertaken with a critical eye for constructive reform It will be of interest to anyone concerned about the future of American higher education The Hidden Professoriate Arthur Wilke,1979-03-28 Wilke has called upon sociologists observers as well as victims of the caste system to describe by use of case studies and to analyze the plight of non tenured faculty and their efforts to survive in an increasingly hostile environment These stories reveal the human factor too often slighted or forgotten in discussions of the precarious place of the university in today s society The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Law and Ethics in Academic and Student Affairs Michelle L. Boettcher,Cristóbal Salinas Jr.,2023-10-23 This valuable resource provides academic and student affairs practitioners with the tools to make informed legal and ethical decisions in their college and university contexts Law is constantly changing and is interpreted differently from campus to campus based on institutional culture and history This text provides higher education practitioners with tools to anticipate practical and responsible action engaging readers in anticipatory and reflective practice In this text Boettcher and Salinas introduce the Institutional Intelligence Model a helpful framework that guides practitioners in examining a wide variety of campus issues Throughout the book readers can explore perspectives from current practitioners and utilize case studies to examine specific topics including admissions academics student living confidential resources and graduate student experiences By using the strategies in this book practitioners will be equipped to successfully navigate legal and ethical issues on their campuses This text is ideal for graduate students student and academic affairs professionals and those in leadership positions responsible for working with and supporting students and staff teams
