valuable pieces. By a gentleman who has made it his business to search after such pieces [J. Dunton]. Phoenix, 1708 Josue Steven Propp, 2005-11 Who is this man Josu is locked up in Shalem State Prison a maximum security institution He had never attracted much attention to himself before and was content to just do his own time But then something happened to him and now he s on a mission to share it Man I ain t never heard nothin like this guy exclaims Jamal one of the twelve prisoners that Josu has appointed to be his Reps and to share the Word about his message with the other prisoners Josu freely gives of himself praying for the healing of the many troubled people who flock to him and telling them stories about the New Order that God is going to establish very soon But the authority figures in the prison can t stand this arrogant challenger to their own power They try to embarrass Josu publicly and fail utterly But then when one of Josu s own followers offers to turn on him betrayal and greed lead to a violent climax Does this story sound familiar Then come and read an all too well known tale told in a fresh exciting way and maybe see some things in the story that you d never noticed before

The Phenix John Dunton, 1708 Dear Diotrephes J. H. Binkley, Sr., 2004-11 These letters were written to various friends critics and inquisitors who were trying to learn our position on the prevailing issues in the Church of Christ Asking for help was enough to uncover other issues Everyone felt compelled to take a stand on every issue I was searching for help due to my failing eyesight and a concern for my wife and six children When I asked whether James 5 14 had really passed away as they said where could I go for help I learned that hardly any of them believed the Bible They just said they did I was told that there were 27 branches of us The introduction of the healing question doubled the number so we had 54 The Holy Spirit question caused further division so we had 108 sects Speaking in tongues professional clergy and fellowship issues made 216 socio religious sects Voila How is that for growth Josué: Prisoner at Shalem Steven H. Propp, 2005-11-21 Who is this man Josu is locked up in Shalem State Prison a maximum security institution He had never attracted much attention to himself before and was content to just do his own time But then something happened to him and now he s on a mission to share it Man I ain t never heard nothin like this guy exclaims Jamal one of the twelve prisoners that Josu has appointed to be his Reps and to share the Word about his message with the other prisoners Josu freely gives of himself praying for the healing of the many troubled people who flock to him and telling them stories about the New Order that God is going to establish very soon But the authority figures in the prison can t stand this arrogant challenger to their own power They try to embarrass Josu publicly and fail utterly But then when one of Josu s own followers offers to turn on him betrayal and greed lead to a violent climax Does this story sound familiar Then come and read an all too well known tale told in a fresh exciting way and maybe see some things in the story that you d never noticed before
