Search For The Real Self:

In Search of the Real Me: Achieving Personal Balance David French, Ph.D.,1992 Realistic achievable self healing is attainable with Dr French s Search for Personal Balance technique With this method of stress reduction the internal and external sources of stress are identified and eliminated The exercises and techniques within this guide will help cure illnesses with emotional components and aid parents in understanding the psychological development of their children Search For The Real Self James F. Masterson,1990-03 Outwardly charming confident and successful individuals may in fact be caught in a knot of self destructive behavior This book looks at case histories and delineates appropriate treatments for each disorder offering a real hope for cure Therapy Culture:Cultivating Vu Frank Furedi,2013-10-28 First published in 2004 Therapy Culture explores the powerful influence of therapeutic imperative in Anglo American societies In recent decades virtually every sphere of life has become subject to a new emotional culture Professor Furedi suggests that the recent cultural turn towards the realm of the emotions coincides with a radical redefinition of personhood Increasingly vulnerability is presented as the defining feature of people s psychology Terms like at risk scarred for life or emotional damage evoke a unique sense of powerlessness Furedi questions widely accepted thesis that the therapeutic culture is primarily about imposing a new conformity through the management of people s emotions Through framing the problem of everyday life through the prism of emotions therapeutic culture incites people to feel powerless and ill Drawing on developments in popular culture political and social life Furedi provides a path breaking analysis of the therapeutic turn The Search for Being Bonnie Lee Calcagno,2006-05-12 I graduated third in my college class I was named both a Ralph Scholar and an Aquinas Scholar But after graduation from college I was lost I would go to the library and wander the shelves looking for something I could not name When I hit the psychology section of the library and started reading widely everything fell into place I wrote the book The Search for Being as separate articles over this period in my life Each chapter represents the ideas of authors I consider to be my spiritual mentors who helped me to understand life myself what being is Finding Your Real Self Dr. Don Chatfield,2010-03-31 Emotion in Motion Mike Robinson,David Picard,2016-05-06 What happens when tourists scream with fear shout with anger and frustration weep with joy and delight or even faint in the face of revealed beauty How can certain sites affect some tourists so deeply that they require hospitalisation and psychiatric treatment What are the inner contours of tourist experience and how does it relate to specific emotional cultures What are the consequences of the emotional cultures of tourists upon destinations How are differences in emotional culture mobilized and played out in the transnational contact zones of international tourism While many books have engaged with the structural frames of tourist practice and experience this is the first to deal with the emotional dimensions of tourism travel and contact and the ways in which they can transform tourists destinations and travel cultures through emotional engagements The book brings together an international array of scholars from anthropology psychiatry history cultural geography and critical tourism studies to explore how the movement to and through the realms of exotic people wild natures subliminal art spirit worlds metropolitan cities and sexualised others variably provoke emotions peak experiences travel syndromes and inner dialogues The authors show how tourism challenges us to engage with concepts of self other time nature sex the body and death Through a set of ethnographic and historic cases they demonstrate that such engagements usually have little to do with the actual destination but rather are deeply anchored in personal memories repressed fears and desires and the collective imaginaries of our societies

Search Without Idols W. Horosz,2012-12-06 Search Without Idols is a study of human transcendence in the context of human striving projecting surpassing overcoming This power is central to man s search for wholeness Such transcendence makes reality tolerable It provides us with m impressive array of human responses which enable us to cope But it also provides the excesses that go beyond human striving Nothing seems to be off limits to this ubiquitous power Such a state of surpassing limits is what we find in the relation between the human search for wholeness and the quest for external totalities which lies beyond the human context Such soaring flights beyond the capacity of human striving are hard to control impossible to show responsibility for and beyond the reach of criteria The reach exceeds both our grasp and our control Transcendence then is a greatly used and much abuse human power Its activities have never ceased to amaze me its excesses have always troubled me even from the beginning of my studies This book is not an exercise in self clarification I have some thoughts on the matter which I wish to share with the reader Perhaps we can mutually appreciate the great gift without compromising our sanity Part I will provide a new look at the meaning of transcendence

The Psychology of Personality Bernardo J. Carducci,2009-03-09 This engaging comprehensive introduction to the field of personality psychology integrates discussion of personality theories research assessment techniques and applications of specific theories The Psychology of Personality introduces students to many important figures in the field and covers both classic and contemporary issues and research The second edition reflects significant changes in the field but retains many of the special features that made it a textbook from which instructors found easy to teach and students found easy to learn Bernardo

Learning in Sports Coaching Lee Nelson,Ryan Groom,Paul Potrac,2016-03-31 The facilitation of learning is a central feature of coaches and coach educators work Coaching students and practitioners are as a result being expected to give increasing levels of thought towards how they might help to develop the knowledge and practical skills of others Learning in Sports Coaching provides a comprehensive introduction to a diverse range of classic critical and contemporary theories of learning education and social interaction and their potential application to sports coaching Each chapter is broadly divided into two sections The first section introduces a key thinker and the fundamental tenets of his or her scholarly endeavours and theorising The second considers how the theorist s work might influence how we understand and attempt to promote learning in coaching and coach education settings By design this book seeks to promote theoretical connoisseurship and to encourage its readers to reflect critically on their beliefs about learning and its facilitation This is an essential text for any pedagogical course taken as part of a degree programme in sports coaching or coach education      Searching for Authenticity S. Gayle Baugh, Sherry E. Sullivan, 2015-05-01 Volume 2 of the Research in Careers series focuses on the search for authenticity in one's career Although there has been growing interest in the topic within the popular press relatively little academic research has been completed on authenticity and careers Researchers are still refining the concept of authenticity and are just beginning to investigate how it influences the enactment of careers in today's turbulent career landscape This volume offers the first organized effort on the topic This volume contains seven chapters which examine the search for authenticity derived from the Kaleidoscope Career Model Mainiero Sullivan 2006 Chapters 1 and 2 present a review of the literature and an in depth analysis of the construct of authenticity Chapter 1 offers a new lens to view career authenticity based on two dimensions of self awareness and adaptability Chapter 2 uses two case studies to define how individuals are authentic in their career Chapters 3 and 4 examine the authenticity of individuals in different career stages with Chapter 3 examining recent college graduates and Chapter 4 examining mid to late stage careerists Chapters 5 6 and 7 focus on the interplay between social interactions and career authenticity Chapter 5 offers a process model that traces how through negotiation a person's identities shape and are shaped by relationships with others leading to the enactment of an authentic career Chapter 6 explores how individuals remain authentic in their career while negotiating the conflicting expectations of multiple interest groups Chapter 7 examines the complex relationships among career authenticity political behaviors and strain
