Search For Tomorrow 1938:

Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1963 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time The Chatham House Version Elie Kedourie, 2004-03-29 No better guide than Professor Kedourie's book can be found to the pitfalls awaiting those who seek to control the Middle East to their own advantage Asian Affairs The Blue Book, 1973 Whole Men Kai Jensen, 1996 Kai Jensen takes a provocative look at masculinity in New Zealand literature He argues that New Zealand writing around the Second World War was shaped by excitement about masculinity as a way of challenging society Inspired partly by Marxism writers such as A R D Fairburn Denis Glover John Mulgan and Frank Sargeson linked national identity to the ordinary working man or soldier and attempted to merge artistic activity and manliness in a new ideal the whole man This masculine excitement forged a literary and intellectual culture which was powerful for thirty years and which discouraged women writers Jensen suggests that the aftermath of masculinism still influences the way New Zealand intellectuals see themselves and that the masculine tradition survives in the writing of Owen Marshall Sam Hunt Maurice Shadbolt and even Maurice Gee At the same time he argues that masculinism underwent a process of change after its high point in the 1940s Frank Sargeson's closeted homosexuality posed a complex problem for the masculine tradition and its historians and James K Baxter's symbolic Jungian poetry was also hard to reconcile with the idea that men's writing must be based on robust experience Yet Baxter prepared the masculine tradition for the 1960s and 1970s by renovating the whole man as bohemian lover Whole Men is not just about one literary movement but about how literary culture works and how New Zealand intellectuals construct their identities Looking Back on Tomorrow Mitch Engel, 2024-04-19 In the months leading up to World War I a young Austrian officer from an aristocratic family falls deeply in love with a beautiful young woman from Serbia It is a match fraught with political peril due to mounting hostilities between the two countries Can their love survive the indignities of two world wars prison camps family tragedies and the separation of an iron curtain The answer is yes but not in the manner one might think Relive the sagas of two families separated by an ocean whose roots trace back to that star crossed love affair and relive a century of history from two highly unusual perspectives Look Andrew L. Yarrow, 2021-11 Andrew L Yarrow tells the story of Look magazine one of the greatest mass circulation publications in American history and the very different United States in which it existed The all but forgotten magazine had an extraordinary influence on mid twentieth century America not only by telling powerful thoughtful stories and printing outstanding photographs but also by helping to create a national conversation around a common set of ideas and ideals Yarrow describes how the magazine covered the United States and the world telling stories of people and trends injustices and triumphs and included essays by prominent Americans such as Martin Luther King Jr and Margaret Mead It did not shy away from exposing the country's problems but it always believed that those problems could be solved Look which was published from 1937 to 1971 and had about 35 million readers at its peak was an astute observer with a distinctive take on one of the greatest eras in U S history from winning World War II and building immense increasingly inclusive prosperity to celebrating grand achievements and advancing the rights of Black and female citizens Because the magazine shaped Americans beliefs while guiding the country through a period of profound social and cultural change this is also a story about how a long gone form of journalism helped make America better and assured readers it could be better still The Chatham House Version and Other Middle-Eastern Studies Elie Kedourie,1984 Twelve studies in the modern history of the Middle East Who was who ,1971 Catalogue of the London Library, St. Jame's Square London Library,1903 Subject-index of the London Library, St. James's Square, London London Library,Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright,1955
