Season For Giving:

Letting Go Linda Estes, 2018-10-16 It's hard to find time for a spiritual recharge in the morning but Linda Estes is here again to help with her mastery of the one minute devotional. We like our stuff don't we? We hold tight to our material things, our dreams, and our plans for our lives. We have things all lined out in our heads and hearts. Things are going along just fine, and then God interrupts our stuff. He asks us to let go of something or someone we love. When that happens, we have two choices. We can either go along with God's plan or hang on to our own. Sometimes God asks us to let go of things simply to help us grow in our faith, walk with Him. Other times He asks us to let go so that He can do what Scripture tells us in Ephesians 3:20. God wants to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think. Only when we are willing to let go of whatever God is asking of us can He then bless our socks off. When we let God be God and surrender our stuff so He can carry out His plan for our lives, that's when we really start living God's way. Linda's prayer for you as you read these one minute devotions is that they will help you find the freedom and blessings in letting go. These books are for everyone who wants to start their day right with God and make delightful gifts.

In Everything, Give Thanks Dr. Louis Ngomo Okitembo, 2012-05-08 Giving thanks in everything makes people happier, strengthens relationships, improves well-being and health, reduces stress, and comply with God's will in Jesus Christ. Counting blessings, noticing simple pleasures, and acknowledging everything that we receive every day as a gift from God is a power that changes lives. Giving thanks can change someone's life from worst to better. Gratitude helps to see everything in God's perspective. Learning how to say THANK YOU in all circumstances constitutes the most effective way to put into action the transformative power of the daily gratitude.

The Middle East (Routledge Revivals) W. B. Fisher, 2013-09-13 In this comprehensive study first published in 1950, Professor Fisher examines all the principal elements, physical and human, that influence environment, development, and ways of life in the Middle East. An analysis of the physical basis of the region is followed by detailed treatment of the complex human and social aspects. A concluding section brings together on a regional basis the elements discussed in the first two parts. With first-hand experience within the Middle East, Fisher presents a detailed and fascinating study based on surveys and investigations he personally carried out. Including wide-ranging geographical, historical, sociological, and political perspectives, this title provides essential background to anyone with an interest in Middle Eastern affairs.
