Thomas Rimer, 2011-11-15 Featuring choice selections from the core anthologies The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature From Restoration to Occupation 1868 1945 and The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature From 1945 to the Present this collection offers a concise yet remarkably rich introduction to the fiction poetry drama and essays of Japan s modern encounter with the West Spanning a period of exceptional invention and transition this volume is not only a critical companion to courses on Japanese literary and intellectual development but also an essential reference for scholarship on Japanese history culture and interactions with the East and West The first half covers the three major styles of literary expression that informed Japanese writing and performance in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries classical Japanese fiction and drama Chinese poetry and Western literary representation and cultural critique Their juxtaposition brilliantly captures the social intellectual and political challenges shaping Japan during this period particularly the rise of nationalism the complex interaction between traditional and modern forces and the encroachment of Western ideas and writing The second half conveys the changes that have transformed Japan since the end of the Pacific War such as the heady transition from poverty to prosperity the friction between conflicting ideologies and political beliefs and the growing influence of popular culture on the country's artistic and intellectual traditions. Featuring sensitive translations of works by Nagai Kafu, Natsume Soseki, Oe Kenzaburo, Kawabata Yasunari, Mishima Yukio and many others, this anthology relates an essential portrait of Japan's dynamic modernization. Poetry of Chiyo-ni Patricia Donegan, Yoshie Ishibashi, 2025-09-09 Patricia Donegan and Yoshie Ishibashi are to be deeply thanked for having given us with such articulate care a poetry major in any language and in any place or time. Robert Creeley poet Chiyo ni 1703-1775 also known as Kaga no Chiyo is Japan's most celebrated female haiku poet. A disciple of Basho's students, she flourished in an era when haiku was predominantly a male-dominated art form. As a poet, painter, and Buddhist nun, Chiyo ni lived a vibrant life while composing haiku that embody crystalline clarity and delicate sensuality. This volume brings together over one hundred of her finest seasonal haiku, renku, linked verse, and haibun travel poems. Highlights of the collection include morning glory, the well bucket entangled, I ask for water, a hundred gourds from the heart of one vine, rouged lips forgotten, clear spring water. These luminous, lucid translations immerse the reader in Chiyo ni's unique vision, offering profound moments of stillness and beauty. Each poem encourages us to pause and reflect on the fleeting moments of our lives. This beautifully illustrated volume also includes artwork by Chiyo ni and other artists, as well as insightful essays about her life and art, informative notes, and a glossary of haiku-related terms. A remarkable collection for lovers of Japanese poetry, Chiyo ni's haiku transcend time and culture, providing a timeless invitation to savor the present moment. The Mountain is Moving Patricia Morley, 1999 In Imperial times in Japan, women were subservient inferiors; in theory, they were liberated by the democratic constitution imposed by the US after World War II, but in real life, Japan's change is glacially slow. Here, that slow-changing reality is juxtaposed with the fast-moving aspirations of Japanese women. The author achieves this through wide-ranging interviews with Japanese women and by using a range of contemporary Japanese literature. Milky Way Railroad Kenji Miyazawa, 2008-01-01 One night alone on a hilltop, a young boy is swept aboard a magical train bound for the Milky Way. A classic in Japan, this tender fable is a book of great wisdom offering insight into the afterlife. One of Japan's greatest storytellers, Kenji Miyazawa (1896-1933) was a teacher, author, poet, and scientist. Basho's Narrow Road Matsuo Basho, 2013-06-15 A stimulating exploration of the haiku masterpiece. Matsuo Basho (1644-94) is considered Japan's greatest haiku poet. Narrow Road to the Interior (Oku no Hosomichi) is his masterpiece. Ostensibly a chronological account of the poet's five-month journey in 1689 into the deep country north and west of the old capital Edo, the work is in fact artful and carefully sculpted, rich in literary and Zen allusion and filled with great insights and vital rhythms. In Basho's Narrow Road: Spring and Autumn Passages, poet and translator Hiroaki Sato presents the complete work in English and examines the threads of history, geography, philosophy, and literature that are woven into Basho's exposition. He details in particular the extent to which Basho relied on the community of writers with whom he traveled and joined in linked-verse (renga) poetry sessions, an example of which, A Farewell Gift to Sora, is included in this volume. In explaining how and why Basho made the literary choices he did Sato shows how the poet was able to transform his passing observations into words that resonate across time and culture
