Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons' now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison's Look Me in the Eye, Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story. A poet and teacher by profession, Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood, her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband, the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own, and her struggle to regain her sanity. Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the facade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism, misogyny, repressed homosexuality, and suicide. She met her husband John Robison in college, and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry. Yet her husband's alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis, and the eventual disintegration of their marriage, took a tremendous toll on their family. Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager, and her younger son Chris, who later renamed himself Augusten, never completed high school. When Margaret met Dr. Rodolph Turcotte, the therapist who was treating her husband, she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence. Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness, her shortcomings as a parent, her difficult marriage, her traumatic relationship with Dr. Turcotte, and her two now famous children, Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison, who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family. She also writes inspiringly about her hard-earned journey to sanity and clarity. An astonishing and enduring story, The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth-century family.

Eduardo Pérez Murcia,2025-09-01 Advancing contemporary scholarly debates on the role of home in understanding displacement and emplacement A Long Journey Home explores powerful personal narratives from Colombia The book examines the experiences of those whose sense of home has been disrupted by decades of conflict and violence It highlights the profound feelings of loss and the enduring struggle of living without a home an experience that can last for years or even decades Through these stories the book reveals how internally displaced people use creativity and imagination to remake their home while on the move The Long Journey Home from Dak To Warren M. Denny,2003-08-03 The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth War is not a game Combat wasn't this fantasy for him in real life This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade His platoon was very unlucky in the June November 1967 campaign as the Fire Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe to toe against a better prepared army and survive The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans While his observations may be controversial to some vets it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there East to West across Russia: The Long Journey Home Daniel C.A.
