Keepers of the Code Robert Lecker, 2013-02-07 Keepers of the Code explores the complex network of associations and negotiations that influenced the development of literary anthologies in English Canada from 1837 to the present Lecker shows that these anthologies are deeply conflicted narratives that embody the tensions and anxieties felt by their editors when faced with the challenge of constructing or rejecting national ideals He argues that these are intensely self-conscious works with their own literary mechanisms and architecture In reading the history of these anthologies he witnesses a complex narrative of nation a compelling story about the values and interests informing English Canadian literary history Stevie Smith and Authorship William May,2010-08-12 The most useful critical guide to the Movement that has appeared in recent years Alan Brownjohn Literary Review MLA Handbook The Modern Language Association of America,2021-04-22 The ninth edition of the MLA Handbook is a textbook and reference guide that offers student writers and writing instructors guidance on creating works cited list entries in MLA style using the template of core elements It features advice on punctuation grammar inclusive language formatting research papers and in text citations Includes an appendix of sample works cited list entries illustrations and an index Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic Romantic Period Writings 1798-1832: An Anthology Ian Haywood,Zachary Leader,2005-11-01 Romantic Period Writings 1798 1832 provides a valuable insight into the condition of Britain in the early part of the nineteenth century It includes original documents from a range of disciplines and discourses Each section includes a scholarly introduction select bibliography and annotations Among the material assembled in the anthology are writings by previously neglected or under represented women working class men black radicals and conservative and evangelical polemicists as well as several unfamiliar texts by canonical writers The writings are organised into sections on Radical Journalism Political Economy Atheism Nation and State Race and Empire Gender Literary Institutions British Literature and Print Culture Sandro Jung,2013 The essays collected here offer examinations of bibliographical matters publishing practices the illustration of texts in a variety of engraved media little studied print culture genres the critical and editorial fortunes of individual works and the significance of the complex interrelationships that authors entertained with booksellers publishers and designers They investigate how all these relationships affected the production of print commodities and how all the agents involved in the making of books contributed to the cultural literacy of readers and the formation of a canon of literary texts Specific topics include a bibliographical study of Aphra Behn s Oroonoko and its
