Longman SOSE 8 Helena MacKay,A. Fahlbusch,2002-01 香港 Hong Kong,2002-10-25 Extreme Environmental Events Robert A. Meyers,2010-11-03 Extreme Environmental Events is an authoritative single source for understanding and applying the basic tenets of complexity and systems theory as well as the tools and measures for analyzing complex systems to the prediction monitoring and evaluation of major natural phenomena affecting life on earth These phenomena are often highly destructive and include earthquakes tsunamis volcanoes climate change and weather Early warning damage and the immediate response of human populations to these phenomena are also covered from the point of view of complexity and nonlinear systems In 61 authoritative state of the art articles world experts in each field apply such tools and concepts as fractals cellular automata solitons game theory network theory and statistical physics to an understanding of these complex geophysical phenomena Australian National Bibliography ,1991 Multisensory Environments Paul Pagliano,2017-12-15 First published in 1999 This book is written in four parts Part I Foundations starts with Chapter 1 What is a multisensory environment and provides a general introduction to the field The MSE can be different things to different people It can describe an actual space or the impact that space has on an individual Furthermore it can be for adults or children for recreation leisure therapy or education Part II Design and construction explores the what who why and how of the open minded Part III Curriculum development begins with Chapter 8 Curriculum development in the MSE The final section Part IV Future developments consists of two chapters The goal of Chapter 11 Conducting research in the MSE is to demystify research and thereby encourage all members of the transdisciplinary team to become actively involved in MSE related research Chapter 12 Where are we going the MSE is re examined to identify possible ways this development could contribute to the increased pluralities that will constitute education in the twenty first century Medical Journal of Australia ,1929 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988 Socially-critical Environmental Education in Primary Classrooms Jane Edwards,2015-10-26 The effectiveness of Education for Sustainable Development depends on the ability of schools and teachers to embrace pedagogies that reduce the gap between the rhetoric of education for the environment and the reality of classroom practices This book responds to the need to better understand the nature of the relationships between agency and structure that contribute to the development of educational rhetoric reality gaps in order to inform processes that most effectively facilitate pedagogical change This book explores the issues of pedagogical change through the experiences of Australian primary school teachers faced with the challenge of implementing an environmental education program in which young students were positioned as active participants in the social processes from which environmentally sustainable practices could be developed These teachers were required to adopt pedagogies that often represented the antithesis of their well established teacher directed approaches Through the use of Anthony Giddens Theory of Structuration this book provides unique perspectives of the teacher mediated manner in which certain elements of structure and agency interrelate to enable and constrain classroom practices essential understandings for school principals and educational policy developers who aim to effectively implement pedagogical change This book also demonstrates that the Theory of Structuration provides a valuable ontological research framework and provides social researchers with practical guidance for how to relate this theory to specific research issues Australian Books in Print
