

A Traveler's Look at AUSTRALIA

The first harbor in the world? That did British Capt. Arthur Phillip point the ship where on January 26, 1788, he founded the continent's first European settlement, Sydney Cove. Thousands of special events throughout 1988 will celebrate the bicentennial of this beginning and the achievements of Australia: a nation of wide open spaces, outgoing people, and strange, marvelous animals. The bicentennial's theme, "Living Together," honors Australia's diverse ethnic groups, including its first inhabitants, the Aborigines.

How it came to being Australia was the first of the world's great nations to be founded by British settlers. In 1788, the first fleet of ships arrived in Sydney Cove, and the British colony of New South Wales was established. The colony grew and developed, and in 1901, the six colonies united to form the Commonwealth of Australia.

Climate Australia has a wide range of climates, from the hot, dry interior to the temperate coastal regions. The climate is generally arid or semi-arid, with high temperatures and low rainfall.
