Looking Lance Esplund,2018-11-27 A veteran art critic helps us make sense of modern and contemporary art The landscape of contemporary art has changed dramatically during the last hundred years from Malevich s 1915 painting of a single black square and Duchamp s 1917 signed porcelain urinal to Jackson Pollock s midcentury drip paintings Chris Burden s Shoot 1971 in which the artist was voluntarily shot in the arm with a rifle Urs Fischer s You 2007 a giant hole dug in the floor of a New York gallery and the conceptual and performance art of today s Ai Weiwei and Marina Abramovic The shifts have left the art viewing public understandably perplexed In The Art of Looking renowned art critic Lance Esplund demonstrates that works of modern and contemporary art are not as indecipherable as they might seem With patience insight and wit Esplund guides us through the last century of art and empowers us to approach and appreciate it with new eyes Eager to democratize genres that can feel inaccessible Esplund encourages viewers to trust their own taste guts and common sense The Art of Looking will open the eyes of viewers who think that recent art is obtuse nonsensical and irrelevant as well as the eyes of those who believe that the art of the past has nothing to say to our present Are You an Art Sleuth? Brooke DiGiovanni

Evans,2016-05-02 From Monet to Renoir and from Boston to Paris kids search famous paintings to complete a checklist of things to find in each Are You an Art Sleuth You probably are Each of the twenty full page paintings drawn from museums around the world are fun lively and full of small details that can be spotted counted and checked off a list of things to find Invite children to see what they can discover when they look at art very closely Following each close up is an accompanying spread full of fun facts and activities including write in and draw in projects related to the painting and the story it tells Prepared by a member of the education staff of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston the facts and historical bits will be specially selected and written to engage young children and encourage them to come in closer and have fun looking at art Some of the artists included in the book are Pierre Auguste Renoir Georges Seurat Fra Angelico Vittore Carpaccio William Hogarth Quentin Metsys Claude Monet Edouard Manet William Holman Hunt Hieronymus Bosch Pieter Breughel and Henri Rousseau Looking at the Overlooked Norman Bryson,1990 Historically and culturally the societies that produced still life painting could hardly be more diverse What is it then that allows us to place such different types of image in a single category Norman Bryson argues that the family resemblances between the different types of still life stem from their common portrayal of a level of material culture that retains its fundamental outlines through long spans of time and across the boundaries and divisions of national culture the culture of domestic routine and the rituals of hospitality How this low plane reality is historically viewed and inflected by the higher levels and discourses of the surrounding culture is the fundamental subject of this book
