John Albert Sleicher

Looking Back And Forth Reflections Of An Old Fashioned Doctor:

Looking Back (and Forth) Herbert L. Fred, 2003 Automate This Christopher Steiner, 2012-08-30 The rousing story of the last gasp of human agency and how today's best and brightest minds are endeavoring to put an end to it. It used to be that to diagnose an illness, interpret legal documents, analyze foreign policy or write a newspaper article, you needed a human being with specific skills and maybe an advanced degree or two. These days, high-level tasks are increasingly being handled by algorithms that can do precise work not only with speed but also with nuance. These bots started with human programming and logic but now their reach extends beyond what their creators ever expected. In this fascinating, frightening book, Christopher Steiner tells the story of how algorithms took over and shows why the bot revolution is about to spill into every aspect of our lives, often silently without our knowledge. The May 2010 Flash Crash exposed Wall Street's reliance on trading bots to the tune of a 998 point market drop and 1 trillion in vanished market value. But that was just the beginning. In Automate This, we meet bots that are driving cars, penning haiku and writing music mistaken for Bach's. They listen in on our customer service calls and figure out what Iran would do in the event of a nuclear standoff. There are algorithms that can pick out the most cohesive crew of astronauts for a space mission or identify the next Jeremy Lin. Some can even ingest statistics from baseball games and spit out pitch-perfect sports journalism indistinguishable from that produced by humans. The interaction of man and machine can make our lives easier. But what will the world look like when algorithms control our hospitals, our roads, our culture and our national security? What happens to businesses when we automate judgment and eliminate human instinct? And what role will be left for doctors, lawyers, writers, truck drivers and many others? Who knows, maybe there's a bot learning to do your job this minute. American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Reflection of Home Letters from Vietnam Leo Dubois, 2007 In 1965, Master Sergeant Leo Dubois was ordered to Vietnam. Seventeen years in the Air Force, 37 years old with five soon-to-be six children, he moved his family to Jacksboro, Texas, for the year and then departed for the airbase at Da Nang. Every day or two, he exchanged letters with his beloved wife, Don Leta. Her letters from home are gone, but Leo's letters survive. They tell stories of tumult on a rapidly expanding military base and the trials and humor of leading the young men under his supervision. And the letters reveal life at home, not directly but indirectly, as if in reflection. From beginning to end, and deeply, they reveal the tender affection and abiding devotion of a husband for his wife. 344 pages, 77 photographs and illustrations. Diagnosis Narratives and the Healing Ritual in Western Medicine James Meza, 2018-07-17 The dominance of illness narratives in narrative healing studies has tended to mean that the focus centers around the healing of the individual. Meza proposes that this emphasis is misplaced and the true focus of cultural healing should lie in managing the disruption of disease and death, cultural or biological, to the individual's relationship with society. By explicating narrative theory through the lens of cognitive anthropology, Meza reframes the epistemology of narrative and healing, moving it from relativism to a philosophical perspective of pragmatic realism. Using a novel combination of narrative theory and cognitive anthropology to represent the ethnographic data Meza's ethnography is a valuable contribution in a field where ethnographic records related to medical clinical encounters are scarce The book will be of interest to scholars of medical anthropology and those interested in narrative history and narrative medicine Modernism and Mimesis

Stephen D. Dowden, 2020-09-26 This book offers a bold new view of the way in which modernist fiction painting music and poetry are interlinked Dowden shows that modernism contrary to a longstanding view did not turn away from mimesis Rather modernism operates according to a deepened understanding of what mimesis is and how it works which in turn occasions a fresh look at other related dimensions of the modernist achievement Modernism is neither difficult nor elitist Instead it trends toward simplicity directness and common culture Dowden argues that naïveté rather than highbrow sophistication was for the modernists a key artistic principle He demonstrates that modernism far from glorifying subjective creativity directs itself toward healing the split between subject and object Mimesis closes this gap by resolving representation into play and festivity The Ladies' Home Journal Edward William Bok, 1917 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Descent
