Illustrated Magazine ,1919 Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl,2016-05-05 In Hunger Movements in Early Victorian Literature Lesa Scholl explores the ways in which the language of starvation interacts with narratives of emotional and intellectual want to create a dynamic evolving notion of hunger Scholl s interdisciplinary study emphasises literary analysis sensory history and political economy to interrogate the progression of hunger in Britain from the early 1830s to the late 1860s Examining works by Charles Dickens Harriet Martineau George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell Henry Mayhew and Charlotte Bronte Scholl argues for the centrality of hunger in social development and understanding She shows how the rhetoric of hunger moves beyond critiques of physical starvation to a paradigm in which the dominant narrative of civilisation is predicated on the continual progress and evolution of literal and metaphorical taste Her study makes a persuasive case for how hunger as a signifier of both individual and corporate ambition is a necessarily self interested and increasingly violent agent of progress within the discourse of political economy that emerged in the eighteenth century and subsequently shaped nineteenth century social and political life Tinsley's Magazine ,1873

American Magazine ,1919 The Saturday Evening Post ,1913 Parents' Education as Autism Therapists Michael Keenan,Ken P. Kerr,Karola Dillenburger,2000 Clear focused and practical this book is a useful introduction to ABA for parents and professionals working with children with autism Successful child rearing is an essential skill for any parent For most of us this skill is handed down from our own parents and society in general In real terms this means that rather than relying on any formal instruction to help us we bring up our children using skills based largely upon common sense and a willingness to do our best These methods are by and large successful in everyday situations However when it comes to more difficult aspects of developing skills in our children we need something more dependable than good will Applied Behaviour Analysis ABA the systematic implementation of scientifically proven behavioural principles offers just that Aimed at enhancing people's lives in ways that they or their carers feel are important it includes a variety of methods and techniques which can be used to promote decrease or maintain skills for daily living ABA has been used to help children with autism for many years in many countries In Northern Ireland the PEAT group offers parents the education necessary to become their own child's therapists using ABA In this book these parents and the professionals involved in their training share their knowledge experience and successes
