Looking For Mr Guevara A Journey Through South American Selva Trilogy:

Looking for Mr. Guevara Barbara Brodman, 2001 In 1997 Barbara Brodman became the first person and only woman to retrace Che Guevara's legendary 1952 journey through South America. Her online diaries of that journey allowed thousands to share her adventures and insights as they happened. This book expands upon those diaries with only two months' experience on a motorcycle. Brodman miraculously makes her way through Argentina over the Andes and to Santiago in mid-winter as an inexperienced rafter. She joins an extreme rafting expedition and bungles her way into breaking records on the treacherous Apurimac River. She abandons a sinking river boat on the Amazon and rows 600 km to Brazil in a dugout canoe. With wit and endurance Brodman strives to capture the essence of Guevara as he was in life, particularly as a young man and as he might have been had he survived the Cold War and evolved into a 21st-century revolutionary. On his journey Guevara discovered his destiny. Brodman does the same.

The Motorcycle Diaries Che Guevara, 1995 The diaries written by Che Guevara during his riotous motorcycle odyssey around South America at the age of twenty-three.
