Mexico-U.S. Migration Management Augustín Escobar Latapí,Susan F. Martin,2008-10-23 The need to understand the migration between the United States and Mexico is greater today than at any time in its century long history Its volume and complexity are greater than most observers might have imagined even a decade ago and it operates in a context charged with serious human political and security challenges Yet there is often confusion over the most fundamental questions about the demography economics and political nature of the movement and its policy responses The editors of this book bring together a team of top policy oriented migration experts from Mexico and the United States to provide an up to date analysis leading to grounded policy recommendations for both governments Their conclusions derive from new analyses as well as from detailed discussions with policy makers Contributors assess the main characteristics trends and factors influencing Mexico U S migration and recommend actions that should improve migration management substantially reduce undocumented flows and refocus Mexican migration into legal channels Also contained within this book are recommendations of development strategies in Mexico that should reduce mid to long term emigration pressures The book shows that collaboration between the U S and Mexico is not only possible but necessary as unilateral reforms will continue to fail until both governments act together to regulate the flow improve conditions for the migrants and make sure that migration has positive social and economic impacts on both countries The Oxford Handbook of Job Loss and Job Search Ute-Christine Klehe, Edwin A. J. van Hooft, 2018 Combining current knowledge from psychology sociology labor studies and economics The Oxford Handbook of Job Loss and Job Search presents one of the first comprehensive overviews of the knowledge and research on job loss and job search It provides readers with suggestions for further research and offers hands on practical advice Counting the Labor Force ,1900 S. 2252, Alien adjustment and employment act of 1977 United States.
