Lookout Cartridge:

Lookout Cartridge Joseph McElroy, 2003-11-25 With Lookout Cartridge Joseph McElroy established a reputation as one of contemporary fiction's foremost innovators and deft observers into the fissures of modern society. It is a novel of dazzling intricacy absorbing suspense and the highest ambition to redeem the great claim of paranoia on the American psyche. In trying to figure out just who is so threatened by an innocent piece of cinema verité filmed in collaboration with a friend Cartwright finds himself at the heart of a mystery stretching from New York and London to Corsica and Stonehenge. With each new fact he gathers both the intricacy of the syndicate arrayed against him and what his search will cost him become alarmingly clear. Writing and Destablization in Joseph McElroy's Lookout Cartridge Isabelle Johnston, 1998 Scenes of Nature, Signs of Men Tony Tanner, 1989-08-25 This book is about the relationship of the American writer to his land and language to the scene and the sign to the natural landscape and the inscriptions imposed upon it by men. Among the questions considered in the first section of the book are how does American Romantic writing differ from European what are the peculiar problems faced by the American artist and what roles does he adopt to tackle them what kind of writing results when authors as different as Henry Adams and Mark Twain lament the vanishing of an earlier America or when Adams and Henry James review their complex relationship to their homeland or when W D Howells and Stephen Crane seek to define their themes in a specifically American setting. The second section of the book examines similar concerns in a number of contemporary writers notably Thomas Pynchon John Barth Donald Barthelme John DeLillo and William Gass. The Art of Excess Tom LeClair, 1989 Topologies of Fear in Contemporary Fiction Scott McClintock, 2015-07-21 The central concern of the book is the impact of global terror networks and state counterterrorism on twentieth century fiction. A unique contribution of this book is the comparative approach as opposed to the single author focus of most of the edited collections on terrorism in literature. Information Multiplicity John Johnston, 1998-05-08 In Information Multiplicity Johnston describes how fractalized realism has redefined thought itself from the High Modernist stream of consciousness into what the machine philosopher Daniel Dennett refers to as multiple drafts or circuits operating concurrently in the human brain. In a series of close readings Johnston traces how such a viral influx of information into human consciousness has been replicated in works by Thomas Pynchon Gravity's Rainbow and Vineland Joseph McElroy Lookout Cartridge William Gaddis JR Don DeLillo Libra and William Gibson Neuromancer. The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and theater and the variety of forms that have been produced. It contains a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual writers important aesthetic practices significant texts and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form. By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this

The Soft Machine David Porush, 2018-05-15 The Soft Machine originally published in 1985 represents a significant contribution to the study of contemporary literature in the larger cultural and scientific context David Porush shows how the concepts of cybernetics and artificial intelligence that have sparked our present revolution in computer and information technology have also become the source for images and techniques in our most highly sophisticated literature postmodern fiction by Barthelme Barth Pynchon Beckett Burroughs Vonnegut and others With considerable skill Porush traces the growth of the metaphor of the machine as it evolves both technologically and in literature of the twentieth century He describes the birth of cybernetics gives one of the clearest accounts for a lay audience of its major concepts and shows the growth of philosophical resistance to the mechanical model for human intelligence and communication which cybernetics promotes a model that had grown increasingly influential in the previous decade The Soft Machine shows postmodern fiction synthesizing the inviting metaphors and concepts of cybernetics with the ideals of art a synthesis that results in what Porush calls cybernetic fiction alive to the myths and images of a cybernetic age

Facing Texts Heide Ziegler, 2013-07-22 This selection of fiction by many of America's best writers each coupled with a distinguished critic's response is designed to defy the chronological secondariness of critical interpretation During the creation of this book the majority of the contributions chosen by the writers themselves were as yet unpublished providing an unmediated encounter between author and critic Every reader extends what editors authors and critics have begun by adding to the imaginary space in which all texts may be woven together This process serves as metaphor for the changing nature of any latter day encounter with one's own literary tradition The interfacing of texts not only illuminates the fiction and the relationship of fiction to critics but also informs our conceptions of text criticism and fiction itself
