Los Relampago Lightning:

Los Tucsonenses Thomas E. Sheridan, 1992-02-01 Originally a presidio on the frontier of New Spain Tucson was a Mexican community before the arrival of Anglo settlers Unlike most cities in California and Texas Tucson was not initially overwhelmed by Anglo immigrants so that even until the early 1900s Mexicans made up a majority of the town's population Indeed it was through the efforts of Mexican businessmen and politicians that Tucson became a commercial center of the Southwest Los Tucsonenses celebrates the efforts of these early entrepreneurs as it traces the Mexican community's gradual loss of economic and political power Drawing on both statistical archives and pioneer reminiscences Thomas Sheridan has written a history of Tucson's Mexican community that is both rigorous in its factual analysis and passionate in its portrayal of historic personages
