Counseling Adolescents Through Loss, Grief, and Trauma Pamela A. Malone, 2016-02-19 Loss grief and trauma come into the lives of adolescents in many forms and with more frequency than the adults in their lives may realize Assessing the depth and nature of their emotions can be difficult adolescents are typically reluctant to show strong emotions and can be difficult to reach particularly when they experience the untimely death of a loved one How best to work with a young person who may have trouble communicating their emotions even under the best of circumstances And what if he or she has learned about the death of a loved one or classmate from another peer rather than a family member What about gender differences and the influence of culture and family What role do cell phones text messaging and technologies such as Facebook play in the adolescent grief experience Adolescents use of technology creates unlimited access to friends support systems and information but news that spreads quickly without buffering effects can intensify the strength of the adolescent grief responses Counseling Adolescents Through Loss Grief and Trauma not only examines these issues it also provides clinicians with a wealth of resources and time tested therapeutic activities that are sure to become an indispensable part of any clinician's practice

Conscious Grieving Claire Bidwell Smith, 2024-03-12 From one of the leading grief therapists this compassionate and accessible guide to grieving offers a new framework for understanding and navigating loss An intimate guide to grieving that offers hope and healing within loss from one of the nation's top grief therapists Conscious Grieving is a book for anyone seeking guidance and support after loss Renowned grief therapist Claire Bidwell Smith combines her deeply personal experience of loss with her long career spent working with thousands of people to introduce a new approach to grief one that promotes hope and even transformation What does it mean to grieve consciously Most of the time when we lose someone we love it feels like grief is just happening to us We feel out of control and overwhelmed Claire reminds us that while loss is something that inevitably happens to all of us how we choose to grieve is up to us When we can consciously engage with our grief rather than avoiding it we can access profound pathways to healing Presented in a series of thoughtful brief vignettes that don't overwhelm the reader Conscious Grieving offers a new framework for each stage of grief Entering Engaging Surrendering and Transforming Entering staying present and taking care of ourselves as we navigate the shock and upheaval of a new loss Engaging navigating that first year after a loss by staying in tune with our needs as more complicated feelings of depression guilt or anger surface Surrendering facing the changes to our identity and who we are becoming in the face of loss Transforming through ritual honor hope and grace and learning to carry our grief with intention so that we can continue to grow heal and thrive Grief asks a lot from us But the ability to grieve is a birthright We grieve throughout our lifetimes We grieve the deaths of loved ones yes but also moves divorce illness injustice time lost changes in the world and healing from these losses requires that we evaluate everything we ever considered meaningful Healing means making our lives worth the pain we endure when we lose someone we love And transforming through grief is an opportunity afforded to all
