Stewart,1998 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www rowmanlittlefield com Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord,Richard Gilbert,2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness. This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable. It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life s losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on than atology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts Life After Losing A Child Antonette Smith, 2021-09-24 Life After Losing a Child is dedicated to my son Antonio Smith Scott May 23 1992 March 5 2013 and in honor of my mother Flora Scott August 25 1949 January 3 2020 who birthed eight children and lost six before her own death Life After Losing a Child is based on my own experiences from a mother's perspective losing a child from a sibling s perspective losing brothers in early childhood how the death of my brothers affected my parents and our family I also share how losing my own son affected my family my four other children and their father Millions of parents lose a child every day and are left struggling trying to not be overtaken with grief for the rest of our lives We suffer from guilt shame hurt pain and sorrows until we allow Jesus to heal us Losing a child from a miscarriage stillbirth sickness deformities abortions accidents or homicides all these losses of a child carries the same hurts pains sorrows and grief The loss of these children leaves a void in all our lives as a family I pray by sharing my loss and grief process you will seek Jesus for healing for yourself and family That you will be empowered to live your best life after the loss of a child or sibling I pray you will live to the fullest capacity God has intended Jesus died to give you with the Holy Spirit guiding you a life of purpose not only for yourself and family but for the child that is gone but not forgotten West Buckland Year Book and Kalendar for 1857, 1857 Living Through Loss Nancy R. into their lives The book explores the varying roles of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in responses to loss Presenting a variety of models approaches and resources Living Through Loss offers invaluable lessons that can be applied in any practice setting by a wide range of human service and health care professionals This second edition features new and expanded content on diversity and trauma including discussions of gun violence police brutality suicide and an added focus on systemic racism Sartor Resartus (1831). Thomas Carlyle, 1863 Signifying Loss Nouri Gana, 2011-01-20 By remapping the configurations of mourning across modernist postmodernist and postcolonial literatures psychoanalysis and deconstruction James Joyce Jamaica Kincaid Tahar Ben Jelloun Elias Khoury Sigmund Freud and Jacques Derrida Signifying Loss studies not only how loss is signified but also the ethico political significance of such signifying First by examining the dynamics between narrative tropes and mourning it elaborates a poetics of narrative mourning in which prosopopoeia becomes the master trope of mourning while catachresis the master trope of melancholia and chiasmus of trauma Second it develops a situated and flexible theory of mourning capable of adjusting to diverse contexts in which the ethical and political stakes of mourning are different in short Signifying Loss calls for the formulation of geopolitical and differential tactics of mourning and mournability rather that for a clear cut strategy of inconsolability Christian Advocate ,1907 The Living Age ,1884 The Loss of a Life Partner Carolyn Ambler Walter, 2003 Through discussions of various theories of grief narratives of the bereaved obtained in interviews with 22 men and women case study analysis and chapter summaries this text integrates the literature about and the bereavement experiences of partners in varying types of relationships Thomas Carlyle's Works: Sartor Resartus. Lectures on heroes and hero-worship Thomas Sartor Resartus Thomas Carlyle, 2017-06-13T17:04:28Z Sartor Resartus was a strange and new book when Carlyle,1891 it was first published in 1833 and in many ways it remains a strange and new book today The bulk of the novel takes the form of the a commentary on the life and works of the fictional Diogenes Teufelsdr ckh a sort of renaissance man German philosopher who develops a Philosophy of Clothes The commentary is composed by a fictional English commentator known only as the Editor the Editor claims to have translated many of Teufelsdr ckh s ideas and quotes from German As the commentary progresses the Editor receives a bag of paper scraps on which are written various autobiographical fragments from Teufelsdr ckh s life The Editor s attempts to organize and interpret these scraps forms the second part of the novel The work is multi faceted sometimes a parody sometimes a comedy sometimes a satire and sometimes seriously philosophical Some critics consider it an early existentialist text At the very least its unique structure and use of meta narrative is hugely influential to modern literature Borges was said to have memorized entire pages and modern texts like Nabokov s Pale Fire borrow liberally from the concept of a meta narrative organized on scraps of paper This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks Works Thomas Carlyle, 1885 Life, Emergent Yasmeen Arif, 2016-11-01 How does an inquiry into life as it lives or dies amid mass violence look like from the perspective of the social

Taking us from Sierra Leone to India to Lebanon Life Emergent challenges conventional understandings of biopolitics weaving a politics of life through the lens of life not death Arguing that the letting die element of biopolitics has been overemphasized Yasmeen Arif zeros in on biopolitics other pole making live She does so by highlighting the various means and the forms of life configured in the aftermath or afterlives of violent events in contexts of law justice community and identity Her analysis of the social repercussions is both global and local in scope Arif examines the convictions made in the Special Court of Sierra Leone the first hybrid court of its nature under international criminal law Next she explores the making of a justice movement in the context of Hindu Muslim violence in 2002 in the state of Gujarat India From there she revisits the Sikh carnage in Delhi of 1984 Finally she explores a span of civil violence in Lebanon and particularly its effects on the city of Beirut This rigorously argued book brings together the various strands of life and the social that each chapter has disentangled and in doing so it begins to frame a politics of and in life A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss David E. Balk, Tracy Wong, Janet R. Balk, 2023-06-05 The purpose of this book is to provide vital information regarding loss and trauma to practicing counselors and therapists Trauma and loss are pervasive presenting problems many counselors and therapists possess scant understanding of trauma and loss and little if any attention is paid to trauma or to loss in the graduate training of clinical psychology and counseling psychology students. The book is organized into four sections which cover an overview of loss and trauma key conceptual frameworks for understanding loss and trauma review of several types of events producing trauma and loss and interventions addressing loss and trauma A key contribution of the book is the focus on losses caused by death and losses due to other reasons The contributions to practice include the overview of what is known about trauma and about loss examination of several frameworks for organizing both understanding of and working with traumatized and bereaved clients rich descriptive cases of individuals coping with various traumatic events and the losses embedded in the trauma and presentation of various interventions including changes that can be made in the graduate education of practitioners Life and Work of Ludwig Lewisohn Ralph Melnick, 2018-02-05 Lewisohn's efforts would later bear fruit in the Jewish renewal movement of the next generation
