Imagining Hinduism Sharada Sugirtharajah,2003 Imagining Hinduism examines how Hinduism has been defined interpreted and manufactured through Western categorizations from the foreign interventions of eighteenth and nineteenth century Orientalists and missionaries to the present day Sugirtharajah argues that ever since early Orientalists discovered the ancient Sanskrit texts and the Hindu golden age the West has nurtured a complex and ambivalent fascination with Hinduism ranging from romantic admiration to ridicule At the same time Hindu discourse has drawn upon Orientalist representations in order to redefine Hindu identity As the first comprehensive work to bring postcolonial critique to the study of Hinduism this is essential reading for those seeking a full understanding of Hinduism Report on the General Aspects of Epidemic Cholera in 1869 James L. Bryden,1870 A History of Europe J. A. R. position in the world especially after Vietnam The author details the challenges the economic transition of the 1970s and 1980s engendered as the United States and Great Britain together actively pursued their shared ideal of an international assemblage of market based democratic states Cronin also addresses the crises that would sorely test the system in subsequent decades from human rights violations and genocide in the Balkans and Africa to 9 11 and militant Islamism in the Middle East to the Great Recession of 2008 The Geopolitics of Space Exploration Marcello Spagnulo,2021-04-02 This is the tale of the modern Space Age detailing all the risks rewards and rivalries that have fueled space exploration over the decades Jump into a world of ambitious entrepreneurs and determined spacefaring nations of secret spy satellites and espionage of all the cooperative and competing interests vying for dominance in ways little known to the public Written by an Italian aeronautical engineer with over thirty years of experience in government and private industry this English translation explains how and why the game has fundamentally evolved and where it is headed next Exploring such topics as GPS and cyberspace the economics of private and public industry and the political motivations of emerging spacefaring powerhouses like China this book is an engaging foray into the ongoing battle for our terrestrial home through extraterrestrial means
