Lost Laysen:

Lost Laysen Margaret Mitchell, 1997-05-06 A love triangle in the South Pacific is the plot of this recently discovered short novel by the author of Gone with the Wind written when she was 16 years old The book also contains intimate letters from the author to a man friend The Margaret Mitchell Encyclopedia Anita Price Davis, 2014-01-10 Atlanta writer Margaret Mitchell 1900 1949 wrote Gone with the Wind 1936 one of the best selling novels of all time The Pulitzer Prize winning novel was the basis of the 1939 film the first movie to win more than five Academy Awards Margaret Mitchell did not publish another novel after Gone with the Wind Supporting the troops during World War II assisting African American students financially serving in the American Red Cross selling stamps and bonds and helping others usually anonymously consumed her This book reveals little known facts about this altruistic woman The Margaret Mitchell Encyclopedia documents Mitchell's work her life her impact on Atlanta the city's memorials to her her residences details of her death information about her family the establishment of the Margaret Mitchell House against great odds and her relationships with the Daughters of the Confederacy and the Junior League Entranced by Story Hugh Crago, 2014-04-24 We live in a world of stories yet few of us pause to ask what stories actually are why we consume them so avidly and what they do for story makers and their audiences This book focuses on the experiences that good stories generate feelings of purposeful involvement elevation temporary loss of self vicarious emotion and relief of tension The author examines what drives writers to create stories and why readers fall under their spell why some children grow up to be writers and how the capacity for creating and comprehending stories develops from infancy right through into old age Entranced by Story applies recent research on brain function to literary examples ranging from the Iliad and Wuthering Heights to Harold and the Purple Crayon providing a groundbreaking exploration of the biological and neurological basis of the literary experience Blending research theory and biographical anecdote the author shows how it is the unique structure of the human brain with its layering of sophisticated cognitive capacities upon archaic emotion driven functions which best explains the mystery of story

The Complete Gone With the Wind Trivia Book Pauline Bartel, 2014-06-09 A Must Have for Gone With the Wind Fans From Margaret Mitchell's tattered manuscript to the film's seventy fifth anniversary this book is a behind the scenes chronicle of Gone With the Wind the book the movie and the phenomenon that continues today Related in loving detail are inside stories of the writing and publishing of the novel the Hollywood frenzy of transforming the book into film including casting headaches on set tensions and jinxed scenes the premiere and the Academy Awards This updated edition also contains the scoop on the publication of two GWTW sequels the disastrous debut of the Scarlett television miniseries the post GWTW lives of cast members such as the news of Gable's secret lovechild the restoration of three original costumes in time for GWTW's seventy fifth anniversary and much much more The reader friendly format fact packed features profiles quizzes and photographs will delight any GWTW fan and make this the one book that no Windie can do without Georgia Women

Kathleen Ann Clark, Ann Short Chirhart, 2014-07-15 Women were leading actors in twentieth century developments in Georgia yet most histories minimize their contributions The essays in the second volume of Georgia Women edited by Ann Short Chirhart and Kathleen Ann Clark vividly portray a wide array of Georgia women who played an important role in the state's history from little known Progressive Era activists to famous present day figures such as Pulitzer Prize winning author Alice Walker and former First Lady Rosalynn Carter Georgia women were instrumental to state and national politics even before they achieved suffrage and as essays on Lillian Smith Frances Pauley Coretta Scott King and others demonstrate they played a key role in twentieth century struggles over civil rights gender equality and the proper size and reach of government Georgia women's contributions have been wide ranging in the arena of arts and culture and include the works of renowned blues singer Gertrude Ma Rainey and such nationally prominent literary figures as Margaret Mitchell Carson McCullers and Flannery O'Connor as well as Walker While many of the volume's essays take a fresh look at relatively well known figures readers will also have the opportunity to discover women who were vital to Georgia's history yet remain relatively obscure today such as Atlanta educator and activist Lugenia Burns Hope World War II aviator Hazel Raines entrepreneur and carpet manufacturer Catherine Evans Whitener and rural activist and author Vara A Majette Collectively the life stories portrayed in this volume deepen our understanding of the multifaceted history of not only Georgia women but also the state itself

Disarming the Nation Elizabeth Young, 1999-12-15 In a study that will radically shift our understanding of Civil War literature Elizabeth Young shows that American women writers have been profoundly influenced by the Civil War and that in turn their works have contributed powerfully to conceptions of the war and its aftermath Offering fascinating reassessments of works by white writers such as Harriet Beecher Stowe Louisa May Alcott and Margaret Mitchell and African American writers including Elizabeth Keckley Frances Harper and Margaret Walker Young also highlights crucial but lesser known texts such as the memoirs of women who masqueraded as soldiers In each case she explores the interdependence of gender with issues of race sexuality region and nation Combining literary analysis cultural history and feminist theory Disarming the Nation argues that the Civil War functioned in women's writings to connect female bodies with the body politic Women writers used the idea of civil war as a metaphor to represent struggles between and within women including struggles against the cultural prescriptions of civility At the same time these writers also reimagined the nation itself foregrounding women in their visions of America at war and in peace In a substantial afterword Young shows how contemporary black and white women including those who crossdress in Civil War reenactments continue to reshape the meanings of the war in ways startlingly similar to their nineteenth century counterparts Learned witty and accessible Disarming the Nation provides fresh and compelling perspectives on the Civil War women's writing and the many unresolved civil wars within American culture today
