New Masculinities in Contemporary German Literature Frauke Matthes, 2023-05-13 The complex nexus between masculinity and national identity has long troubled but also fascinated the German cultural imagination This has become apparent again since the fall of the Iron Curtain and the turn of the millennium when transnational developments have noticeably shaped Germany's self perception as a nation This book examines the social and political impact of transnationalism with reference to current discourses of masculinity in novels by five contemporary male German language authors Specifically it analyses how conceptions of the masculine interact with those of nationality ethnicity and otherness in the selected texts and assesses the new masculinities that result from those interactions Exploring how local discourses of masculinity become part of transnational contexts in contemporary writing the book moves a consideration of masculinities from a native into a transnational sphere Rubinsteins Versteigerung Rafael Seligmann, 1991 Stimmen aus

Jerusalem Hermann Zabel, 2006 Jews in German Literature Since 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh, 2000 This volume contains some 46 essays on various aspects of contemporary German Jewish literature The approaches are diverse reflecting the international origins of the contributors who are based in seventeen different countries Holocaust literature is just one theme in this context others are memory identity Christian Jewish relations anti Zionism la belle juive and more Prose poetry and drama are all represented and there is a major debate on the controversial attempt to stage Fassbinder's Der Müll, die Stadt und der Tod 1985 The overall approach of the volume is an inclusive one In his introduction the editor calls for a reappraisal of the terms of German Jewish discourse away from the notion of Germans and Jews and towards the idea that both Jews and non Jews all of them Germans have contributed to the corpus of German Jewish literature German Literature Between Faiths Peter Meister, 2004 Religion is a central concern of German literature in all centuries and the canon looks different when this perspective is acknowledged For example Goethe s fascination with evil is difficult to disentangle from the Holocaust Moses Mendelssohn is as profound as the playwright who portrayed him and Princess Sabbath deserves to be numbered among Heine s more enchanting lyrics This essay collection posits and tests the hypothesis that German literature at its best is often an expression or investigation of Judaism or Christianity at their best but that the best German literature is not always the best known and vice versa Asking whether the New Testament is anti Jewish and answering in the negative essayists range through the German centuries from The Heliand to Kafka and Thomas Mann
