Biblical scholarship like many other disciplines has become increasingly isolated As a result the field has not borrowed as much from other areas of scholarship as it could have and has exerted a smaller impact upon the larger intellectual community A significant portion of Pagans and Practitioners deals with how the New Testament can be read as a rebuttal of Pagan rivals In doing so greater linkages with other disciplines are reestablished Discussion of how the tools developed by Biblical criticism can serve other secular disciplines are provided Collectively this book explores how Biblical criticism can exert a greater impact upon the intellectual world The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1898 Writing Battles Máire Ní Mhaonaigh,Rory Naismith,Elizabeth Ashman Rowe,2020-05-14 Battles have long featured prominently in historical consciousness as moments when the balance of power was seen to have tipped or when aspects of collective identity were shaped But how have perspectives on warfare changed How similar are present day ideologies of warfare to those of the medieval period Looking back over a thousand years of British Irish and Scandinavian battles this significant collection of essays examines how different times and cultures have reacted to war considering the changing roles of religion and technology in the experience and memorialisation of conflict While fighting and killing have been deplored glorified and everything in between across the ages Writing Battles reminds us of the visceral impact left on those who come after Gender, Race, and the Writing of Empire Paula M. Krebs,1999 All of London exploded on the night of May 18 1900 in the biggest West End party ever seen The mix of media manipulation patriotism and class race and gender politics that produced the spontaneous festivities of Mafeking Night begins this analysis of the cultural politics of late Victorian imperialism Paula M Krebs examines the last of the gentlemen s wars the Boer War of 1899 1902 and the struggles to maintain an imperialist hegemony in a twentieth century world through the war writings of Arthur Conan Doyle Olive Schreiner H Rider Haggard and Rudyard Kipling as well as contemporary journalism propaganda and other forms of public discourse Her feminist analysis of such matters as the sexual honor of the British soldier at war the deaths of thousands of women and children in concentration camps and new concepts of race in South Africa marks this book as a significant contribution to British imperial studies
