Rulers Of Russia :

The Czars James P. Duffy & Vincent L. Ricci, 2015-06-22 During the course of most of Russia's turbulent history czars ruled. The story of these men and women as diverse as the lands they governed is in many ways the story of Russia itself. From the birth of the Kievan state in the second half of the ninth century to the murder of Czar Nicholas II and his family in 1918, historians James P. Duffy and Vincent L. Ricci trace the long and twisted line of imperial rule in Russia, offering many insights into the uses and abuses of absolute power as well as a glimpse at world history through the eyes of those who made it. The Czars is a vital page in the literature of Russian history. The Rulers of Russia Norah Hewitt (Hon.), 1924

Leaders of Russia and the Soviet Union John Paxton, 2004 This reference work surveys the leaders of Russia and the Soviet Union from Michael the first Romanov tsar in 1613 through the creation and dissolution of the Soviet Union to the present-day President of the Russian Federation Vladimir Putin. Chronologically arranged, these biographies paint a thorough yet succinct portrait of 30 leaders, including discussion about the family and education of each ruler, important legislation, events, and wars under each leader's rule, and each leader's achievements and impact on Russia or the Soviet Union. The Rulers of Russia Peter Andrews, 1983 Text and lavish photographs present the treasures of the Rurik and Romanov dynasties in Russia. The Rulers of Russia Denis Fahey, 1940 The Rulers of Russia Dennis Fahey, 2013-07-09 An eye-witness of exceptional value of all the events of the Russian Revolution is Robert Wilton, the Russian correspondent of The Times for seventeen years. Born in England but educated in Russia, he knew Russia like a Russian. During the war, this correspondent of The Times on one occasion in 1916 took command of a section of the Russian army of which the officers had been wounded and behaved with such gallantry that he was decorated with the Cross of St. George. It was the first time that this exclusively military distinction had been conferred upon a civilian. In the Foreword to his French book Les Derniers Jours des Romanof from which I am about to quote, Robert Wilton says that in order to ensure the accuracy of the work, he himself translated from Russian into French the official reports and original documents confirming his narrative. I have done all in my power, he adds, to act as an impartial chronicler. The list of names of the Rulers of Russia in 1918, which I am about to quote, is taken from pages 136-137 of this painstaking French study of the Russian Bolshevik Revolution. It is a noteworthy fact that this list is not to be found in the English edition of the same work, The Last Days of the Romanovs, published in September 1920 by Thornton Butterworth. Pope Pius XI wrote as follows in the Encyclical Letter Divini Redemptoris: For them, the peoples of the Soviet Union, we cherish the warmest paternal affection. We are well aware that not a few of them groan beneath the yoke imposed on them by men who in very large part are strangers to the real interests of the country. We recognise that many others were deceived by fallacious hopes. We blame only the system, with its authors and abettors, who considered Russia the best field for experimenting with a plan elaborated years ago and who from there continue to spread it from one end of the world to the other. In this pamphlet, I have outlined some of the historical evidence which goes to prove that those strangers to the real interests of Russia who are experimenting with this Marxian plan elaborated years ago are members of the Jewish nation and that Communism is the latest and up to the present the most decadent materialistic phase of the opposition of that nation to the Supernatural Messiah A statement made by Stalin at a session of the Third International or Comintern in Moscow in May 1938 makes this manifest The revival of revolutionary action on any scale sufficiently Vast said the Muscovite figure head will not be possible unless we succeed in utilising the existing disagreements between the capitalistic Countries so as to precipitate them against each other into armed conflict The doctrine of Marx Engels Lenin teaches us that all war truly generalised should terminate automatically by revolution The essential work of our party comrades in foreign countries consists then in facilitating the provocation of such a conflict Those who do not comprehend this know nothing of revolutionary Marxism I hope that you will remind the comrades those of you who direct the work The decisive hour will arrive In the splendid Encyclical Letter On the Condition of the Church in Germany March 14th 1937 Pope Pius XI said that the first and obvious duty the priest owes to the world about him is service to the truth the whole truth the unmasking and refutation of error in whatever form or disguise it conceals itself The World's History at a Glance, from 800 B.C. to 1913 A.D. Edward Joseph O'Brien, 1913 Russia's Attitude Towards Union with Rome (9th-16th Centuries) ... Joseph B. Koncius, 1927 The Rulers of Russia and the Russian Farmers Denis Fahey, 2010-10-23 The American Lawyer , 1903
