Run For Life:

The Running Life Steven McCann, 2021-09-09 Running is a part of our consciousness and subconsciousness all through life We run as children chasing kites and ice cream trucks and run away from irate parents We run as teenagers in our sports We run as adults to stay in shape and as elderly people we run after toddlers that suddenly escape our protection We run in nightmares We run in happy dreams for the exuberance of pure freedom We run to catch subways buses and planes We run to meet our lovers Our clocks run fast or slow and we run late or early My running stories capture some of the ways we run A kindergartener chases his mother for an entire mile so he can walk her to the grocery store A high school track athlete runs to win the heart of a classmate A college coed wakes up late for her final exam and runs frantically across campus to preserve her grade point Another young woman runs to escape a rapist An elderly man watches joggers sweep by on a country road from his seat in a wheelchair holding in his heart all the wonderful miles he once ran himself Buttons and Babs Run Life's Race Vasta Z.
