Janice Fiamengo, Gerald Lynch

Runaway Vintage Contemporaries:

Alice Munro's Miraculous Art Janice Fiamengo, Gerald Lynch, 2017-02-14 Alice Munro's Miraculous Art is a collection of sixteen original essays on Nobel laureate Alice Munro's writings. The volume covers the entirety of Munro's career from the first stories she published in the early 1950s as an undergraduate at the University of Western Ontario to her final books. It offers an enlightening range of approaches and interpretive strategies and provides many new perspectives, reconsidered positions and analyses that will enhance the reading, teaching and appreciation of Munro's remarkable, indeed, miraculous work. Following the editors' introduction, which surveys Munro's recurrent themes, explains the design of the book and summarizes each contribution, Munro biographer Robert Thacker contributes a substantial bio-critical introduction to her career. The book is then divided into three sections focusing on Munro's characteristic forms, themes and most notable literary effects. The Publishers Weekly, 1998. The Inside of a Shell Vanessa Guignery, 2015-05-13 The Canadian author Alice Munro, recognized as one of the world's finest short story writers, published some seventeen books between 1968 and 2014 and was awarded the third Man Booker International Prize in 2009 and the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2013. This worldwide recognition of her career calls for a look back at her very first collection of short stories, Dance of the Happy Shades, published in 1968 and composed of fifteen stories written between 1953 and 1967. Some forty-five years after the publication of this first volume, worldwide specialists of her work examine the first steps of a great writer and offer new critical perspectives on a debut collection that already foreshadows some of the patterns and themes of later stories. Contributors adopt a variety of approaches from the fields of narratology, gender studies, psychoanalysis and genetic criticism, amongst others, to illuminate the main stylistic features, narrative strategies, literary traditions, modes of writing and generic traits of the stories in Dance of the Happy Shades. Literature and The Contemporary Roger Luckhurst, Peter Marks, 2014-07-22 At the end of the century, much criticism has become devoted to 'last things': the end of history, the end of the subject, the end of the novel, the end even of the end. Literature and the Contemporary in contrast aims to provide, through twelve essays, evidence of the way in which the literature of the 1990s is constantly engaging in questions of memory and history and the representation of time in the present day. The essays in the book survey theories of temporality from various cultural and philosophical standpoints and represent critics writing from feminist, postcolonial and queer perspectives, discussing literature in our time. The collection addresses such central issues as the politics of memory, colonial legacies, women's time, racial and sexual identities in the 1990s and covers a wide range of contemporary authors' works and issues, some of which are treated for the first time. Among the contemporary works discussed are the prize-winning books Graham Swift's Last Orders, Anne Michaels' Fugitive Pieces and Jane Smiley's A Thousand Acres. While discussing some of the most significant novels of the 1990s, this collection also offers a diverse yet cohesive critique of the millennial leanings of much postmodernist criticism, which it argues should be replaced by more variously nuanced engagements with literature and the
