Runner 999 Racing To Disaster:

Runner 999 John McDermott,2002-07 Runner 999 John Ralson McDermott,2001-10 When you look at all of the innovation that has been added to the world in just the last one hundred years it is absolutely astounding how far we've come. Start ups endeavor to capture that innovation and make its benefits available to those whose lives will be forever improved by it. Yes there can be great wealth and fame for those intrepid entrepreneurs who dare beyond the dream to actual execution. But there is also great risk and no guarantees. Today the barriers to starting a company are almost too low and that can seduce an entrepreneur to build without truly thinking the idea through to its rightful conclusion. It's just full speed ahead of the competition even when there isn't any. It's millions of investment dollars spent on a product with no customers yet. It's build it and they will come. Well what if they didn't come? What are you going to do now? This is a far different situation than when you were driving the original idea selling the vision seeking and getting the intoxicating Wow's when everyone would talk to you and everyone was chasing you to share his or her sage. But when you've built it and they didn't come when you have that epiphany that maybe they aren't ever coming when the buzz and the fervor turn into fear uncertainty and doubt where do you turn? Well I've accepted that I can't get to every start up's CEO before he builds a product with no orders for it. He wouldn't listen anyway as most are too busy building to listen then. But what I can do is help him figure out his. Now What when it happens. This book is not about theory. It's true stories with practical advice on what to do next. Getting it right creates jobs provides for the future of the families involved brings products to the world that can forever improve lives and bring benefits to our global economy. It is with great courage that these Executives so candidly have shared their own true stories of how they came to their Now What moment and what they did to get it right. No one told them now they openly will tell you.

The People's Tycoon Steven Watts,2009-03-04 How a Michigan farm boy became the richest man in America is a classic almost mythic tale but never before has Henry Ford's outsized genius been brought to life so vividly as it is in this engaging and superbly researched biography. The real Henry Ford was a tangle of contradictions. He set off the consumer revolution by producing a car affordable to the masses all the while lamenting the moral toll exacted by consumerism. He believed in giving his workers a living wage though he was entirely opposed to union labor. He had a warm and loving relationship with his wife but sired a son with another woman. A rabid anti Semite he nonetheless embraced African American workers in the era of Jim Crow Uncovering the man behind the myth situating his achievements and their attendant controversies firmly within the context of early twentieth century America Watts has given us a comprehensive illuminating and fascinating biography of one of America's first mass culture celebrities The Motor World, 1903 Running the Risk David Burrett Reid, 2025-05-19 Entertaining and illuminating this is odds on to recalibrate your reasoning about every threat and opportunity The only risk would be not to read it Quentin Cooper science journalist and host of BBC Radio 4's Material World A must read for anyone who wants to know about the risks we run in this highly complex world we're living in Vincent Doumeizel author of The Seaweed Revolution I have been studying risk for more than sixty years and have seen a lot of books on the subject Running The Risk is one of the best Professor Paul Slovic founder and president of Decision Research A genuinely fabulous book my bet is that this book will be talked about for years to come Professor Richard Clegg chairman of the Institute for the Public Understanding of Risk National University of Singapore Crossing the road sitting next to someone on the subway who might have a virus or going out at night alone we are surrounded by hidden risks Running The Risk delves into the fabric of our daily existence posing crucial questions about the risks we face what we need to know about them and what we can do to engineer a safer more resilient future From the roots of the concept of risk to new threats brought by climate change each chapter unfolds a captivating narrative weaving together major historical incidents and topical news events Explore the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina and how it transformed the way we prepare for disasters Travel to Fukushima and witness the importance of listening to our ancestors Uncover the way coastal communities are adapting to rising sea levels in Indonesia Dive into the digital realm with the Cambridge Analytica scandal revealing a new era of digital risk and anxiety Through riveting storytelling Running the Risk invites readers to reflect on the risks we navigate in a rapidly changing world and understand the global implications of interconnected threats This exploration of risk is not just an exposé it's a guide to building resilience making informed choices and ultimately leading safer healthier happier lives A well rounded book that draws on history in a thought provoking way Claire Fox Baroness Fox of Buckley panellist on BBC Radio 4's The Moral Maze and Director of the Academy of Ideas American Pigeon Journal, 1928 Network World, 1991-11-11 For more than 20 years Network World has been the premier provider of information intelligence and insight for network and IT executives responsible for the digital nervous systems of large organizations Readers are responsible for designing implementing and managing the voice data and video systems their companies use to support everything from business critical applications to employee collaboration and electronic commerce The Automobile, 1903 Shootdown T. J. Murray, 2010-05-17 On board a Jumbo jet approaching Heathrow airport there is an explosion and the giant aircraft plunges to earth in the London suburbs Even as crash investigators begin their painstaking task amid the carnage a message is received claiming that the aircraft was shot down by terrorists and threatening further shootdowns if world political leaders fail to take immediate action to meet their demands Mark Holtby Middle East based correspondent for the International Press Agency is one of the few survivors from the crash Despite harbouring doubts about the authenticity of the terrorist message Mark sets out to try and track down its authors
