Running With The Angels The Gifts Of Aids:

Running with the Angels Bobbie Stasey, Ed Dziczek, 1994-01-01 AIDS Narratives Steven F. Kruger, 2013-10-28 This is the first book length study of the rich fiction that has emerged from the AIDS crisis Examining first the ways in which scientific discourse on AIDS has reflected ideologies of gender and sexuality such as the construction of AIDS as a disease of gay men part of a battle over masculinity and thus largely excluding women with AIDS from public attention the book considers how such discourses have shaped narrative understandings of AIDS On the one hand AIDS is seen as an invariably fatal weakening of an individual's bodily defenses a depiction often used to reconfirm an identification between disease and a weak and vulnerable gayness On the other hand AIDS is understood in terms of an epidemic attributable to gay immorality or unnaturalness The fiction of AIDS depends upon these two narratives with one major subgenre of AIDS novel presenting narratives of personal illness decline and death and a second focusing on epidemic spread These novels also question the narrative structures upon which they depend intervening particularly against the homophobia of those structures though also sometimes reinforcing it Ready to Live, Prepared to Die Amy Harwell, 2013-02-20 Are you afraid of dying Are you hesitant to talk with those you love about your last wishes Do you avoid the tasks that help you prepare for the future Or are you helping someone a spouse parent friend patient or client who is working through the issues of death and the quality of life When Amy Harwell found out she had rapidly progressing cancer she began a journey of discovery and faith that led her to a new understanding Once we are well prepared to die we are really freed to live With a hopefulness that never loses touch with reality Harwell accompanies her readers through the mundane tasks involving health care directives legal documents and funeral arrangement and on to the profound opportunities of saying good bye to those we love Each step of the journey offers possibilities to grow and discover God anew And Amy a seasoned traveler includes notes from her own passage useful questions and a checklist for others on the road A Gift for Mothers. By the Author of "Aids to Development," etc.
