Rural Gender Studies in Europe Leendert Plas, 1994 Bundel met artikelen over vrouwen in de agrarische sector in verschillende Europese landen met name over het belang dat vrouwen hebben in het voortbestaan van het boerenbedrijf en hun aandeel in het beleid op Europees niveau

Women in the European Countryside Henry Buller, 2017-11-28 Much of the literature published so far on gender relations in rural areas has either focused on comparisons of the position of men and women or explored the position of women given prevailing structural forces and behavioural norms that restrict the autonomy of women as human agents This groundbreaking book broadens the debate by developing our understanding of how societal processes produce and sustain gender divisions particularly in rural areas highlighting aspects of rural women's lives previously invisible in the literature Illustrated by case studies from France Germany Greece Norway and Sweden the book examines the critical issues of education and training entrepreneurship leadership limited work and service opportunities social mobility and work experiences In doing so the contributors provide a fascinating comparative study of both national regional and broader European realities

Green Europe, 1994

Power and Gender in European Rural Development Henk De Haan, Taylor & Francis Group, 2020-10-12 Since the early 1990s new public and private actors emphasizing issues such as landscape nature environment and food safety have challenged EU rural development policies This book looks at this innovative framework and in particular the impacts of the interactions between established interests and newcomers in local power relations Specific attention has been given to the gendered nature of these processes Case studies from throughout Western Europe analyze local rural power relations and present overviews of the significance of rural gender relations The book demonstrates that traditional and new forms of social organization in rural areas create new forms of political participation Changing forms of social capital and political participation not only influence the relation between state and civil society but also male female relationships The book argues that the dynamics of these gendered power relations produce competing discourses which can often hinder policy making and implementation

Regional and Urban Economics and Economic Development Mary E. Edwards, 2017-09-25 Thorough and authoritative Regional and Urban Economics and Economic Development Theory and Methods provides students with a sound approach to analyzing the economic progress of a region or urban area The textbook is divided into four sections for ease of reference The first section Market Areas and Firm Location Analysis introduces spatial economics and location theory while the next section Regional Growth and Development analyzes regional growth and development models and policy Introducing the foundations of urban economics Urban Land Use and Urban Form examines land rent land use patterns and the effects of attempts to control land uses The final section Urban Problems and Policy investigates local public finance and introduces the policy analysis involved in countering urban problems Addressing these topics from the perspectives of how they affect the population at large and how they become established within public policy Regional and Urban Economics and Economic Development Theory and

Methods provides students with an essential foundation not only to understand but also to contemplate the dynamics of varying economic factors as they relate to an area's growth

The European Neighbourhood Policy in a Comparative Perspective Sieglinde Gstohl, 2016-07-22 The European Neighbourhood Policy ENP has evolved into one of the European Union's major foreign policy instruments and received considerable attention. However, other EU neighbourhood policies and their relevance for the ENP also require examination. The Arab uprisings, civil wars in Libya and Syria, the continuing Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the crisis in Ukraine, and Russia's annexation of the Crimean peninsula have all brought the institutional design and tools of the ENP into question, and a comparative perspective is crucial to understand EU neighbourhood policies in a wider sense. This timely book puts the ENP into context by exploring the major challenges and key lessons of the EU's other policy frameworks with neighbouring countries. Mapping the EU's bi-lateral and multilateral neighbourhood relations in comparison to the ENP and investigating the major challenges faced, it provides a comprehensive up-to-date view of the EU's relations with its neighbours. Focusing on current affairs and future challenges, the comparison with the ENP and the lessons to be drawn generate novel insights into the EU's closest external relations. This book will be of key interest to students and scholars studying European Politics, policies and comparative politics.

Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, 2016-05-20 Rural societies around the world are changing in fundamental ways both at their own initiative and in response to external forces. The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies examines the organisation and transformation of rural society in more developed regions of the world taking an interdisciplinary and problem-focused approach. Written by leading social scientists from many countries, it addresses emerging issues and challenges in innovative and provocative ways to inform future policy. This volume is organised around eight emerging social, economic and environmental challenges: Demographic change, Economic transformations, Food systems and land, Environment and resources, Changing configurations of gender and rural society, Social and economic equality, Social dynamics and institutional capacity, Power and governance. Cross-cutting these challenges are the growing interdependence of rural and urban, the rise in inequality within and between places, the impact of fiscal crisis on rural societies, neoliberalism, power and agency, and rural areas as potential sites of resistance. The Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies is required reading for anyone concerned with the future of rural areas.

Gender Inequalities in Tech-driven Research and Innovation Gabriele Griffin, 2022-06-17 ePDF and ePUB available Open Access under CC BY-NC-ND licence. The Nordic countries are regarded as frontrunners in promoting equality, yet women's experiences on the ground are in many ways at odds with this rhetoric. Putting the spotlight on the lived experiences of women working in tech-driven research and innovation areas in the Nordic countries, this volume explores why, despite numerous programmes, women continue to constitute a minority in these sectors. Contributors flesh out the differences and similarities across different Nordic countries and explore how the shifts in labour market conditions have impacted on women in research and innovation.

This is an invaluable contribution to global debates around the mechanisms that maintain gendered structures in research and innovation from academia to biotechnology and IT Agriculture in Mediterranean Europe Dionisio Ortiz Miranda, Eladio Vicente Arnalte Alegre, Ana Maria Moragues Faus, 2013-06-25 This volume illustrates and deepens the understanding of current agrarian dynamics developing in Mediterranean countries in the light of recent theoretical contributions The book compiles and analyses a set of Mediterranean case studies that show the range of transformations shaping contemporary agriculture in Southern Europe Emerging Voices Pat O'Connor, 1998
