Rural Malay Women In Tradition And Transition:

Rural Malay Women in Tradition and Transition Heather Strange, 1981 Women and the Politics of Representation in Southeast Asia Adeline Koh, Yu-Mei Balasingamchow, 2015-06-03 Singapore and Malaysia are rapidly modernising globalising Asian states which although being distinct nations since 1965 share common elements in the on going struggle over the meaning of gender and sexuality in their societies This is the first book to discuss a range of discourses around gender in these two countries Women and the Politics of Representation in Southeast Asia Engendering Discourse in Singapore and Malaysia seeks to give an overview of how gender and representation come together in various configurations in the history and contemporary culture of both nations It examines the discursive construction of gender sexuality and representation in a variety of areas including the politics of everyday life education popular culture literature film theatre and photography Chapters examine a range of tropes such as the Orientalist Sarong Party Girl the iconic Singapore Girl of Singapore Airlines and the figure of pious Muslim femininity celebrated by Malaysian NGO IMAN all of which play important roles in delineating limitations for gender roles The collection also draws attention to resistance to these gender boundaries in theatre film blogs and social media and pedagogy Bringing together research from a variety of humanistic and social science fields such as film material culture semiotics literature and pedagogy the book is a comprehensive feminist survey that will be of use for students and scholars of Women s Studies and Asian Studies as well as on courses on gender media and popular culture in Asia Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics economy and society today focussing on issues institutions and trends It is divided into four thematic sections which are all introduced by the editor Domestic politics Economics Social policy and social development International relations and security The volume brings together an international team of experts an interdisciplinary mix of forty contributors from Malaysia and elsewhere including many of the leading specialists on Malaysian affairs The chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating window onto contemporary Malaysia They each introduce a different aspect of the Malaysian polity economy or society offering both historical perspective and a current assessment or investigation Designed for general readers and specialists alike chapters may be read individually each stands on its own or conjointly Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P. Sloane, 1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author s own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen, 1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Women and Politics in Southeast Asia Theresa W Devasahayam, 2018-11-01 This book aims to contribute to the discourse on women and politics in Southeast Asia The chapters covering Indonesia Myanmar the Philippines Timor Leste and Singapore analyse the asymmetrical power relationships between the sexes and how power differentials between men and women play out in the realm of politics are a reflection of the power contestations women face with men in other spheres of everyday life Each chapter seeks to ask a different question in terms of where women viz men stand in the political landscape of their countries in an effort to answer the question of Where are the women in the gender trope in Asian politics While the chapters are primarily empirical as they delve into the challenges contradictions and conflicts Southeast Asian women encounter the main assertion is that womens struggles in the realm of politics are a result of having to operate within power structures created principally by men thereby producing barriers for women to enter politics on the one hand and to increase their numbers and widen their sphere of influence on the other Recognizing that Asian politics is dominated by men the question of how women have negotiated a value system that is inherently male centred and male controlled is also discussed The implicit narrative demonstrated in this book is that the political arena should not be considered in isolation from other arenas but instead is essentially a mirror of other arenas whether the home workplace nation and or global spaces each marked by power contestations between men and women and having a spill over effect on the other as well as shaping womens experiences in the political realm Muslim Women (RLE Women and Religion) Freda Hussain, 2020-07-26 The history of Islam and the changing role performance of Muslim women given the various interpretations of the belief system of Islam are described It is the contention of the authors that it is these various interpretations which have given rise to the conflict between the ideal and contextual realities This book also includes papers which investigate the problems of feminism and employment for Muslim women as well as the educational and legal aspects of their lives in contemporary Islamic society First published in 1984 Women in Agriculture, 1979-July 1987 Jerry Rafats, 1987 Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2018-09-14 Elite Malay women s polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available Women, Islam and Everyday Life Nina Nurmila, 2009-06-10 This book examines Islam and women's everyday life focusing in particular on the highly controversial issue of polygamy. It discusses the competing interpretations of the Qur'anic verses that are at the heart of Muslim controversies over polygamy with some groups believing that Islam enshrines polygamy as a male right, others seeing it as permitted but discouraged in favour of monogamy, and other groups arguing that Islam implicitly prohibits polygamy. Based on detailed fieldwork conducted in Indonesia, it provides an empirically based account of women's lived experiences in polygamous marriages, describing the different perceptions of the practice and strategies in dealing with it. It also considers the impact of changing public policy in particular Indonesia's 1974 Marriage Law which restricted the practice of polygamy. It shows that in fact this law has not resulted in widespread adherence and considers how public policy could be modified to increase its effectiveness in affecting behaviour in everyday life. Overall, the book argues that polygamy has been a source of injustice towards women and children, that this is against Islamic teaching, and that a just Islamic law would need to call for the abolition of polygamy.
