Rural Studies In Britain And France:

Rural Studies in Britain and France Philip Lowe, Maryvonne Bodiguel, 1990 Film and Community in Britain and France Margaret Butler, 2004-08-27 Relations between France and Britain have always been uneasy and ambivalent But in cinema WWII changed all that for a time Although the two countries wartime fortunes differed post war both were busy reintegrating returning servicemen and prisoners of war and accommodating the changed aspirations of women Margaret Butler examines these subjects and more in her comparative study of the cinemas of Britain and France during and after the war Using the concept of continuity she shows how cinema dealt directly with ideas of belonging and alienation inclusion and exclusion unity and division She also draws on contemporary debates and offers a perceptive reading of key films to reveal the meaning and appeal of French classics like Les Enfants du Paradis and notable British productions like Waterloo Road

Rural Transformations and Rural Policies in the US and UK Mark Shucksmith, David L. Brown, Sally Shortall, Jo Vergunst, Mildred E. Warner, 2012-02-27 This book examines the transformations of rural society and economy in the UK and US during the last half century and explores the significance of these trends and changes for community sustainability quality of life and the environment While both the UK and US are highly urbanised rural people and communities continue to contribute to national identity economic development and social solidarity as well as to environmental quality Contributors explore the degree to which rural people exhibit agency and autonomy rather than being merely passive in the face of exogenous forces of change in a globalised world They also illuminate very different policy approaches to rural policy in two advanced capitalist societies often thought to be similar and show how fundamental differences in rural policy approaches of the US and the UK are based on different social ideologies and values that shape policies relating to rural areas This book will help to stimulate transatlantic dialogue on rural scholarship and rural policy analysis while also contributing to theory and policy development It will be of interest to researchers students and everyone involved in the policy and practice of rural development

Philosophy and Geography II Andrew Light, Jonathan M. Smith, 1998 The future of public space is uncertain Although public spaces have become increasingly shabby and crowded novel alternatives have appeared in the form of fantastic semi public pleasure grounds developed by well heeled crowd pleasing entrepreneurs and devoted to profit consumption and self indulgence Philosophers and geographers have converged on the topic of public space fascinated and in many ways alarmed by fundamental changes in the way post industrial societies produce space for public use and in the way citizens of these same societies perceive and constitute themselves as a public The contributors to this volume advance this inquiry making extensive use of political and social theory Philosophy and Geography II The Production of Public Space gives readers an enhanced appreciation of the intimate connections between political principles social processes and the commonplaces of our everyday environments

Rural Europe Keith Hoggart, 2014-02-25 Examines the interaction of the economic political and social change processes within Europe which are bringing about fundamental transformations in rural areas The authors expand on this view of rural Europe and place its significance within the broader field of rural studies

Britain's rural Muslims Sarah Hackett, 2020-06-06 Immigration has long been associated with the urban landscape from accounts of inner city racial tension and discrimination during the 1960s and 1970s and studies of minority communities of the 1980s and 1990s to the increased focus on cities amongst contemporary scholars of migration and diaspora Though cities have long provided the geographical frameworks within which a significant share of post war migration has taken place Sarah Hackett argues that there has long existed a rural dimension to Muslim integration in Britain This book offers the first comprehensive study of Muslim migrant integration in rural Britain across the post 1960s period examining the previously unexplored relationship between Muslim integration and rurality by using the county of Wiltshire in the South West of England as a case study Drawing upon a range of archival material and oral histories it challenges the long held assumption that local authorities in more rural areas have been inactive and even disinterested in devising and implementing migration integration and diversity policies and sheds light on smaller and more dispersed Muslim communities that have traditionally been written out of Britain's immigration history

Rural Studies France and Britain Lowe, 1989-09 Research into rural issues is a dominant theme of contemporary social science as the countryside responds to the new challenges of contemporary politics economics and society

Handbook of Rural Studies Paul Cloke, Terry Marsden, Patrick Mooney, 2006-01-05 This book raises the theoretical level of rural studies to new heights the Handbook of Rural Studies will likely become a key resource on the bookshelves of the next generation of graduate students Gary Paul Green University of Wisconsin Madison This Handbook powerfully demonstrates that rural spaces rural societies and rural natures are at the very forefront of critical social science endeavour Read this book become a rural social scientist Henry Buller University of Exeter An outstandingly comprehensive review of theory research and the study of rural questions an essential reference for students scholars politicians developers and rural activists Imre Kovach Institute for Political Sciences Budapest This collection is an essential addition to any rural scholar's library and will be a critical resource for both established rural scholars and rising graduate students interested in rural research topics Peter B Nelson Middlebury College The Handbook of Rural Studies is a tour de force on changing rural people and places in a rapidly urbanizing global economy the most comprehensive interdisciplinary treatment of rural available anywhere This is absolutely must reading for social scientists concerned about finding a prominent place for rural in scholarly discourse institutional analysis and public policy debates on the political economy of space Daniel T Lichter Policy Analysis and Management Cornell University The Handbook represents the vitality and theoretical innovation at work in rural studies It shows how political economy and the cultural turn have led to very significant new thinking in the cultural representations of rurality nature sustainability new economies power and rurality new consumerism and exclusion and rurality It is organized in three sections approaches to rural studies rural research key theoretical coordinates and new rural relations In a rich and textured discussion the Handbook of Rural

Studies explains the key moments in which the theorization of culture nature politics agency and space in rural contexts have transmitted ideas back into wider social science Historical Dictionary of France Gino Raymond,2008-10-23 From the construction of Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower to the Fall of the Bastille and the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen to Napol on Bonaparte s defeat at Waterloo to Albert Camus L Etranger and the existentialism of Jean Paul Sartre France has been a part of some of the greatest and most memorable events in human history Author Gino Raymond relates the history of these events in the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of France Through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on kings politicians authors architects composers artists and philosophers a thorough history of France is presented Anthropological Perspectives on Local Development Simone Abram,Jacqueline Waldren,2003-12-16 This collection examines the conflicts and realities of development at a local empirical level It provides a series of case studies which illuminate the attitudes and actions of all of those involved in local development schemes The material is drawn from Southern and Eastern Europe Asia and Africa All the contributors use rigorous anthropological methods of analysis to shed light on the place of feelings of personal sentiment and identity in reactions to planned development schemes In a world where direct action and public protest are routine responses to local development schemes they show how protesters developers and politicians often hold very different fundamental views about the environment society government and development which go beyond partisan economic and political interests
