Rush Hour Face:

The Face James Stanley, 2017-09-28 It was a beautiful late April day in 1968 She had decided to take her baby for a stroll She sat on the park bench checked her watch and looked skyward squinting into the sun trying to make out the dark falling object that appeared as if someone had dropped a sack of sand from the clouds Oh my God! It's a person A person soon to be found dead in the courtyard of the 6 floor Kensington Towers and identified as 25 year old Jane Louise Ladd a lifelong London resident and current fashion model known as The Face during a time that defined a generation Travel back in time to the era known as Swinging Britain and learn what happened Did Jane jump Was it an accident Was it foul play The Man With No Face Peter May, 2019-03-05 There are two men on their way to Brussels from the UK Neil Bannerman an iconoclastic journalist for Scotland's Daily Standard whose irate editor wants him out of the way and Kale a professional assassin A classic early Peter May novel situated among the political intrigue of 1979 Expecting to find only a difficult dreary political investigation in Belgium Bannerman has barely settled in when tragedy strikes His host a fellow journalist along with a British Cabinet minister are discovered dead in the minister's elegant Brussels townhouse It appears that they have shot each other But the dead journalist's young autistic daughter Tania was hidden in a closet during the killings and when she draws a chilling picture of a third party a man with no face Bannerman suddenly finds himself a reluctant participant in a desperate murder investigation As the facts slowly begin to emerge under Bannerman's scrutiny he comes to suspect that the shootings may have a deep and foul link with the rotten politics that brought him to Brussels in the first place And as Kale threatens to strike again Bannerman begins to feel a change within himself His jaded professionalism is transforming into a growing concern for the lonely and frightened Tania and a strong attraction to a courageous woman named Sally drawing him out of himself and into the very heart of a profound cold blooded and infinitely dangerous conspiracy Peter May is a writer I'd follow to the ends of the earth Marilyn Stasio New York Times The Yoga Face Annelise Hagen, 2007-08-16 View our feature on Annelise Hagen's The Yoga Face To keep their faces looking younger women today try everything from invasive procedures such as plastic surgery and Botox to expensive cosmeceuticals The Yoga Face is a new and completely natural alternative anti aging regimen that women can do anytime and anywhere and in just minutes The exercises developed by yoga expert and instructor Annelise Hagen are based on a simple principle The muscles of the face are no different from the muscles of the rest of the body If you don't exercise the muscles below the neck they become weak and flabby and the same thing will happen to your face with age Just as yoga routines work the muscles in the body the stretches and movements in The Yoga Face tighten and tone the face muscles and combat wrinkles Working out with fun facial exercises such as the Louis Armstrong Satchmo the Marilyn Monroe kiss and the Lion Face readers will notice changes quickly and over time the results are dramatic Illustrated with more than seventy five instructive photos throughout The Yoga Face offers an easy safe and effective solution to help women turn back the clock and have beautiful young looking skin Faces of the

Faces on the Clock Larry Bauer-Scandin, 2010-05-28 This guy is tough and so is his message By Ruben Rosario Pioneer Press St Paul MN August 2011 Edited for length Like the U S Postal Service apparently nothing keeps Larry Bauer Scandin foster dad to 125 from his self appointed rounds Not the weather Not the heart ailments or the genetic neurological disorder that robbed him of movement and rendered him legally blind The 64 year old Vadnais Heights resident just gets up and does it My life was normal for the first nine years of my life until 1957 when my foot went to sleep except that my foot never woke up Bauer Scandin told a group of inmates from the 3100 unit at the Dakota County Jail But that s not the main message that Bauer Scandin a retired probation officer and jail counselor wants to deliver on this day Whom do you blame for your problems he asks the group of 34 men who are members of IMC or Inmates Motivated to Change Under the program inmates with chemical dependency or mostly nonviolent offenses sign an agreement to take part in several programs and pledge not to make the same mistakes that keep landing them in lock up What people need to do is stand in front of a mirror and ask How much of the problem is mine and how much is it somebody else I first wrote about Bauer Scandin five years ago It was centered on his life as a foster parent As he told the inmates two of his former foster kids are cops one in St Paul Two are soldiers deployed to Iraq One s a millionaire One s an author Most are raising families or staying out of trouble in spite of hardships But 15 are dead said Bauer Scandin author of Faces on the Clock an engrossing memoir about his life The dead include suicide victims including an 11 year old others from AIDS and my last one they found in three or four pieces as I understand Bauer Scandin s worth writing about again for what he continues to do at great pain and sacrifice without pay or fanfare He didn t sugarcoat or pull punches with his audience What I m afraid is still happening is that the system is trying to figure out how to get tighter he told them The sentences are getting tougher And it s not the police the sheriffs the courts or even the folks in state and county run corrections that are responsible for the race to incarcerate It s the legislature Bauer

Scandin said And legislatures have been known to do very stupid things He also faults the media and a gullible public that forms opinions and dehumanizes people strictly on what they watch on TV and not on real life experiences or knowledge What do they see he said They see the Charlie Mansons They see the unusual They see the extreme Most of you aren't that way But that's what makes the news Yet he doesn't divert from his main message It's up to the inmate to take a positive step and choose the right way Get yourself back into a position where you can influence those people to be able to go to a school board or a city council or legislative meeting and have your voice heard You can't fight the system from in here he concluded You have to be out there The inmates applauded and one by one stood in line to shake his hand on his way out the jail complex His progressively debilitating disorder is taking more of a toll these days But he steered the scooter inside the van and deftly wiggled his frail body into the driver's seat He has no complaints he told me He will continue to go out and speak as long as God and his wife allow him I hope something stuck he tells me before he drives off I hope so too Larry
