Comparative Federalism Thomas O. Hueglin, Alan Fenna, 2006-01-01 This is a thoughtful well organized review of a subject of ever increasing importance the resurgence of the federal idea The Honourable Bob Rae 21st Premier of Ontario Designing Federalism Mikhail Filippov, Peter C. Ordeshook, Olga Shvetsova, 2004-02-09 Because of the redistributive nature of institutions and the availability of implementable alternatives with different distributive consequences the desire of federation members to change institutional specifics in their favor is a permanent feature of the federal political process This is so for two reasons First states or their equivalents in democratic federations usually can succeed in renegotiating the rules if they feel sufficiently motivated to do so Second in the case of a federation it is more or less clear who stands to benefit from any change in institutions Thus the existence of an equilibrium of constitutional legitimacy at the popular and elite levels cannot be taken for granted The authors show that the presence in the political process of agents who are naturally committed to the status quo institutional arrangement can suffice to coordinate voters to act as if they support existing constitutional arrangements

The European Integration Process: Crisis and Resilience in the Aftermath of the Covid-19

Pandemic António Portugal Duarte, Srdjan Redžepagic, Fátima Teresa Sol Murta, The process of European integration is considered the most innovative example of regionalism in the world The Covid 19 pandemic crisis which the world experienced since the beginning of 2020 caused a brutal negative shock on the economies It raised new doubts and challenges about the European integration project making the prospect of the EU's dissolution something possible even if undesirable The book analyses these events counting with the contribution of 41 authors from universities and research centers of several European countries and also from other continents Its objective is to gather four perspectives to the European integration in a post pandemic context I that of the countries of the Eurozone II that of the Eurozone candidate countries III the East look of EU candidate countries and IV the view of the rest of the world The book is divided into four parts each corresponding to one of these inputs for a total of 24 chapters

Comparative Politics Daniele Caramani, 2008 Comparative Politics provides a comprehensive introduction to political systems around the world It covers methods and theories the nation state institutions actors and processes policies and recent changes

European Integration and the Nationalities Question John McGarry, Michael Keating, 2006-09-27 A highly topical examination of the effect of European integration on relations between states and minority nations This new collection brings together the leading specialists in the field and covers a wide range of cases from Northern Ireland in the West to Estonia and Latvia in the East and Cyprus in the South East The contributors assess how European integration has affected the preparedness of states to accommodate minorities across a range of fundamental criteria including enhanced rights protection autonomy the provision of a voice for minorities in the European and international arena and the promotion of cross border cooperation among communities dissected by state frontiers The comprehensive chapters stress the importance of the nationality question and the fact that contrary to the hopes and beliefs of many on the left and right it is not going to go away Beginning with an introductory essay that summarizes the impact of European integration on the nationalities question this accessible book will be of strong interest to scholars and researchers of politics nationalism ethnic conflict and European studies
