

Scottish Golf and Golfers

~ S. L. McKinlay

Scottish Golf and Golfers

A COLLECTION OF
WEEKLY GOLF COLUMNS FROM
THE GLASGOW HERALD
1956 - 1980

By S. L. McKinlay

There cannot be a golfer of quality who has not sustained himself during a dreary practice exercise by pretending before each stroke, or at least before each notable putt, "This for the Open Championship."

It is an amiable and harmless fantasy. None of us, with the possible exception of three golfers in Scotland, is ever going to find himself in that position. In fact, we do well if once in every so many years we find ourselves on the last green grovelling over a four-foot putt, and suddenly realising that we have, in fact, "This for the medal."

And that's enough to turn our knees into jelly, to glaze our eyes, and to convert into a coal-heaver's clutch what was before the moment of truth a sensitive arrangement of the hands that even Vardon would have approved. As the charwoman mumbled into her gin, "It's me nerves, ducky."
