Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching Jessica Holloway, 2024-02-08 This book draws attention to the new ways the field of education is problematising the emerging and evolving conditions that shape the work lives and identities of teachers It offers geographically diverse accounts of the teacher and teaching demonstrating what it means to do critical research well Teachers and their practice have been and continue to be important sites of critical research This book offers varied perspectives from diverse geographies to examine how teacher subjectivities are shaped by conditions of possibility Collectively they show how critiquing conditions rather than the teachers themselves provide a means for problematising the teacher while also advocating the well being of teachers as humans Contributions offer compelling examples of how critical scholars can emphasise teaching as a political and value laden exercise and therefore treat the teacher subject as also being constituted through political and value laden discourses Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching offers a provocation to inspire new questions moving forward That is critical researchers have an obligation to challenge taken for granted assumptions not only by looking outwards at the policymakers edu businesses and intergovernmental agencies e g OECD but also by looking inwards and challenging their assumptions about power discourse and subjectivity This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies in Education

Planet Plutonia Manny Mamuschia, 2011-02-18 From my point of view as the author I would like for my readers to grasp the understanding that there is a Creator call It by whatever title you like and that everything in our world and the universes is that It s all about change So when change does come into your life accept it without fear and simply deal with it as it comes along We humans can make change a wonderful part of our lives without the anxiety coming in and controlling our lives So this is a story of our fears or wants change knowing Creator does exist as do other Beings which are aware of all the above said and know their duties to Creator and humanity and all of life that may exist that we are still unaware of as yet I would also like for my readers to know that we the peoples have all the powers to manifest whatever we desire in our lives and our world Earth But first we have to accept that the possibility exists and then we have to work on that aspect to manifest whatever we want in our individual life There is at the least one major rule in all of existence though Love is the strongest denominator which exists and that is what we the peoples must focus on becoming Beings of love which means do unto others better than we desire for our individual selves This is a fantasy story of truth and fantasy mixed together to elicit what Creator desired me to evoke in all humanity This must be read from beginning to the end to not miss some important part of the story Enjoy and make the changes that you know need be made for your life and those around you to become better than could be hoped Aloha
