Scratch Its Not A Monkey On Your Back:

The Representative Agent in Macroeconomics James E Hartley, James E. Hartley, 2002-01-04 Representative agent models have become a predominant means of studying the macroeconomy in modern economics without there being much discussion in the literature about their propriety or usefulness This volume evaluates the use of these models in macroeconomics examining the justifications for their use and concluding that representative agent models are neither a proper nor a particularly useful means of studying aggregate behaviour

The Monkey Is the Messenger Ralph De La Rosa, 2018-11-13 An engaging funny and introductory guide for anyone whose overactive mind gets in the way of starting a regular meditation practice My mind is so busy I really need to meditate My mind is so busy there s no way I can meditate Familiar dilemma These days just about all of us know we should be meditating but that doesn t make it any easier to sit down and face the repetitive thoughts careening around our brains seemingly pointless sometimes hurtful nearly always hard to control Rather than quitting meditation or trying to wall off the monkey mind Ralph De La Rosa suggests asking yourself a question If you were to stop demonizing your monkey mind would it have anything to teach you In a roundabout way could repetitive thoughts be pointing us in the direction of personal and even societal transformation Poignant and entertaining The Monkey Is the Messenger offers a range of evidence based somatic and trauma informed insights and practices drawn from De La Rosa s study of neuroscience and psychology and his long practice of meditation and yoga Here at last a remedy for all those who want to meditate but suppose they can t because they think too much

The Ape in the Corner Office Richard Conniff, 2005-09-06 Tired of swimming with the sharks Fed up with that big ape down the hall Real animals can teach us better ways to thrive in the workplace jungle You re ambitious and want to get ahead but what s the best way to do it Become the biggest baddest predator The proverbial 800 pound gorilla Or does nature teach you to be more subtle and sophisticated Richard Conniff the acclaimed author of The Natural History of the Rich has survived savage beasts in the workplace jungle where he hooted and preened in the corner office as a publishing executive He s also spent time studying how animals operate in the real jungles of the Amazon and the African bush What he shows in The Ape in the Corner Office is that nature built you to be nice Doing favors grooming coworkers with kind words building coalitions these tools for getting ahead come straight from the jungle The stereotypical Darwinian hard charger supposedly thinks only about accumulating resources But highly effective apes know it s often smarter to give them away That doesn t mean it s a peaceable kingdom out there however Conniff shows that you can become more effective by understanding how other species negotiate the tricky balance between conflict and cooperation Conniff quotes one biologist on a chimpanzee s obsession with rank His attempts to maintain and achieve alpha status are cunning persistent energetic and time consuming They affect whom he travels with whom he grooms where he glances how often he scratches where he goes what times he gets up in the morning Sound familiar It s the same behavior you can find written up in any issue of BusinessWeek or The Wall Street Journal The Ape in the Corner Office connects with the day to day of the workplace because it helps explain what people are really concerned about How come he got the wing chair with the gold trim How can I survive as that big ape s subordinate without becoming a spineless yes man Why does being a lone wolf mean being a loser And yes why is it that jerks seem to prosper at least in the short run Also available as a Random House AudioBook and an eBook
