Screen World 1969 Volume:

American International Pictures Rob Craig,2019-03-05 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company Television Western Players, 1960-1975 Everett Aaker,2017-06-08 This biographical encyclopedia covers every actor and actress who had a regular role in a Western series on American television from 1960 through 1975 with analyses of key players The entries provide birth and death dates family information and accounts of each player s career with a cross referenced videography An appendix gives details about all Western series network or syndicated 1960 1975 The book is fully indexed

The New Poverty Row Fred Olen Ray,1991-01-01 Since cinema s earliest beginnings there has been friction between producers and directors Shady accounting practices which favored the distributors at the expense of the filmmakers were all too common causing many filmmakers to form independent companies to make and distribute their own product This book examines six such low budget exploitation companies Associated Distributors Productions Filmgroup Hemisphere Pictures American General Pictures Independent International Pictures Dimension Pictures and the author s own American Independent Productions A brief history of each company laced with quotes from the company s principals is presented followed by a filmography that lists all known credits for that company Feature Films, 1960_1969 Harris M. Lentz III,2001-08-07 This is a filmography in two volumes of not only all of the English language movies made during the 1960s that had a U S theatrical release but major foreign films exhibited in the United States as well The following information is provided for each film year of release nation of origin if other than the U S production or distribution company black and white or color running time genre production credits cast and characters and a brief synopsis This turbulent decade is unusually interesting in the history of cinema Those films released in the early part of the decade were similar to those of the 1950s but as the years passed the offerings changed in many ways Official Identification and Price Guide to Movie Memorabilia Richard De Thuin,1990 Collector s guide catalogue of historical film posters books autographs magazines

The Publishers Weekly ,1970 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan,Warren Buckland,2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou's Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze's Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy's Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline
