

37 He said to my disciples and my rest, that it is I myself: I am the way, and said for a spirit such as I had used hence, as I see me have.

38 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

39 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

40 And they gave him a piece of a baked fish, and of an honeycomb.

41 In the city of Jerusalem, ordained with power from God. And he said unto them Bethany, and he lived up and blessed them.

42 And it came to pass, when he had thus said, he was parted from them and carried up into heaven.

43 And they worshipped him till he was out of their sight.

44 And they were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The beginning, the word, and the life of Jesus Christ. 2 The testimony of John. 3 The coming of the Holy Spirit, Peter, etc.

4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

5 The word was in the beginning with God.

6 All things were made by him: and without him was not any thing made that was made.

7 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

8 And the light shineth in darkness;
and the darkness comprehended it not.

9 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

10 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

11 He was not that Light, but came to bear witness of that Light.

12 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

13 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

14 He came unto his own, and his own rejoiced not.

15 But as many as received him, unto him gave he power to become of God, even to them that believe in his name.

16 Which were born, not of the will of the flesh, nor of men, but of God.

17 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw the glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace.

18 John bore witness of him, saying, This was he
of whom I said, I have spoken of him.

19 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

20 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

21 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

22 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

23 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

24 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

25 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

26 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

27 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

28 And for he was
not given by man, but
by God, he was not
given by man.

Astell,2024-07-15 Through close examination of ancient medieval and modern Lives of the saints Ann W Astell demonstrates how the historical transformation of hagiography as a genre correlates with similar changes in biblical studies Christian hagiography flourished from the fourth to the fifteenth centuries illuminating the gospel through the overlapping forms of exempla and vita Originally the Lives of the saints were understood as hermeneutical extensions of the Bible God authors the saint just as God authors the divinely inspired scriptures During the medieval period a sense of dual authorship between God and the cooperating saint developed paralleling the Scholastic impulse to assign greater agency to the human writers of scripture Then in the sixteenth century powerful new anxieties about historical truth pushed hagiography aside for biography its successor Drawing on her expertise in the history of Christianity and biblical exegesis Astell convincingly shows how this radical shift in hagiography s status the loss of the literal allegorical tropological and anagogical senses of the Lives serves as a bellwether for modern biblical reception What Is Your Practice? Liz Forney,Norvene Vest,2015-08-01 What Is Your Practice presents a variety of foundational Christian ascetical practices translated into contemporary idiom Instead of relying on imperatives and fixed answers readers are encouraged to experiment with and commit to sustained practices that can help them to live faithfully with important questions during unsettled times
