The Heart of Long Term Care Rosalie A. Kane,Robert L. Kane,Richard C. Ladd,1998 Long term care in the United States has taken the nursing home as its benchmark but the monetary social and psychological costs of nursing home care are all too high This book challenges the current dominance of nursing homes as the principal institution of long term care It offers a series of alternative models where both services and housing can be provided in a way that allows long term consumers to enjoy dignified normal lifestyles It addresses the political and economic consequences of making this decision The authors start with the premise that long term care is designed to assist people who lack the capacity to function fully independently They argue that no disabled person of any age should be required to forsake his her humanity in exchange for care The book rejects the artificial dichotomy between social and medical care asserting that both play important roles in psychological and physical well being of long term care patients The authors consider the need for competent and compassionate medicine and discuss the methods for improving both its coordination of care and its effectiveness The book redefines the meaning of safety and protection in long term care and how this goal can be accomplished without sacrificing quality of living As the new millennium and the aging of baby boomers approaches more creative approaches to providing better long term care are required This volume outlines a useful framework for the provision of effective and humane community based programs that are both feasible and affordable It will be an invaluable guide for geriatricians public health professionals family physicians nurses and others who care for elderly patients

Handbook of Gerontological Services Abraham Monk,1990-06-29 Social Work Aging Harry R. Moody,Jennifer R.

Sasser,2014-03-10 Presenting current research in an innovative format Harry Moody and Jennifer Sasser's Aging Concepts and Controversies encourages students to become involved and take an informed stand on the major aging issues that we face as a society Using their extensive expertise the authors provide a thorough explanation of the issues in the Concepts sections and current research in the Controversy sections demonstrating the close links between concepts and controversies in these broad areas of aging health care socioeconomic trends and the life course Who Cares for the Elderly? Emily K. Abel,1991 Although caregiving is predominantly women's work care for the elderly is largely absent from the feminist agenda in this country Emily K Abel presents a compelling and sensitive report that describes the experience of caregiving from the perspective of adult daughters She places their stories in the context of an analysis of existing policies and services for the elderly and traces the history of family caregiving in the U S since 1800 Through in depth open ended interviews with 51 women who were caring for one or both parents Abel explores how caregivers themselves understand their endeavors Poignant excerpts from these interviews reveal the overwhelming sense of responsibility that these women feel for their parents lives how they protect their parents dignity and the isolation and lack of support that is faced in these homecare situations While policy analysts speak of filial responsibility Abel allows the adult daughters to interpret its meaning in heart rending detail In her examination of how public policies affect the nature of caregiving at home Abel argues that the amount of care women deliver to elderly relatives is determined not only by demographic trends but by the inadequacies of the long term care system in the U S Author note Emily K Abel is Adjunct Associate Professor in the School of Public Health at the University of California Los Angeles She has published several books and is co editor with Margaret K Nelson of Circles of Care Work and Identity in Women's Lives Minorities, Aging and Health Kyriakos S. Markides,Manuel Miranda,1997-09-22 Ethnic minorities represent a growing percentage of the elderly population in the United States Yet the impact of aging on minority groups and subgroups has only been partially studied Minorities Aging and Health fills the gap and opens the debate on how to provide for the specific needs of an increasingly elderly population Specific issues covered in this volume include mortality and life expectancy the incidence of chronic disease and disabilities diet and nutrition mental health access to health services and long term care and public health care policy Medicare Savings Programs and Low Income Subsidy United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Health,2008 The Gerontological Prism: Developing Interdisciplinary Bridges Jeffrey Michael Clair,Richard Allman,2018-10-26 The Gerontological Prism promotes disciplinary cooperation in aging research and practice To some extent each chapter explores a unified objective that of generating a disciplinary blind gerontology The fundamental assumption throughout this book is that the aging individual and society can be enhanced by an understanding of the correlates of basic social behavioral demographic economic political ethical and biomedical processes involving aging Each author touches on issues that have both social psychological and practical policy significance They aim toward sensitizing the reader to the possibilities of a properly informed interdisciplinary approach to gerontology Confused Minds, Burdened Families ,1990 Confused
