On the Lyricism of the Mind Dana Amir,2015-12-14 On the Lyricism of the Mind Psychoanalysis and Literature explores the lyrical dimension or the lyricism of the psychic space It is not presented as an artistic disposition but rather as a universal psychic quality which enables the recovery and recuperation of the self The specific nature of human lyricism is defined as the interaction as well as the integration of two psychic modes of experience originally defined by the psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion The emergent and the continuous principles of the self Dana Amir elaborates Bion s general notion of an interaction between the emergent and the continuous principles of the self offering a discussion of the specific function of each principle and of the significance of the various types of interaction between them as the basis for mental health or pathology The author applies these theoretical notions in her analytic work by means of literary illustrations showing how the lyrical dimension may be used to teach psychoanalytic readings of literature and explore the connection between psychoanalytic and literary languages On the Lyricism of the Mind presents a new psychoanalytic understanding of the capacity to heal to grieve to love and to know using literary illustrations but also literary language in order to extract a new formulation out of the classic psychoanalytic language of Winnicott and Bion This book will appear to a wide audience to include psychoanalysts psychotherapists and art therapists It is also extremely relevant to literary scholars including students of literary criticism philosophers of language and philosophers of mind novelists poets and to the wide educated readership in general No. 1 Werone Way Ananth Kopalle, 2025-04-25 My name is Elise Mustang I thought it d be a weekend like any other I just wanted to play and eat and sleep Who would ve thought that opening a small box would unleash the wildest magic and take me on an out of the world adventure Now I m back to tell you my story A story so extraordinary I wouldn t have believed anyone if they told me the same I travelled across continents and explored the world with new eyes except that I wasn t human anymore Truly one of the most spectacular books of all time must read Elise Mustang yes that s me again Ananth Kopalle took the train every day to return home Most of the seats were taken during the rush hour so the 20 minute ride had to be done standing often sandwiched between other passengers Unable to read a book or comfortably browse the phone he d use this time preparing for what he loved the most narrating bed time stories to his then 8 year old son Holding on to the handrails he d weave stories intended to stimulate critical thinking and bring a sense of adventure and wonder about life He d often intermix a variety of subjects like love nature war and conflict Gods fairies and demons life in other countries and so on He created enough stories in his memory bank to never run out of them at bed time After about three years of doing this Ananth thought it was a good idea to take story telling to the next level by writing a book That s where he found contentment creating stories that inspire curiosity and enrich young minds Medicine of Australian Mammals Larry Vogelnest, Rupert
